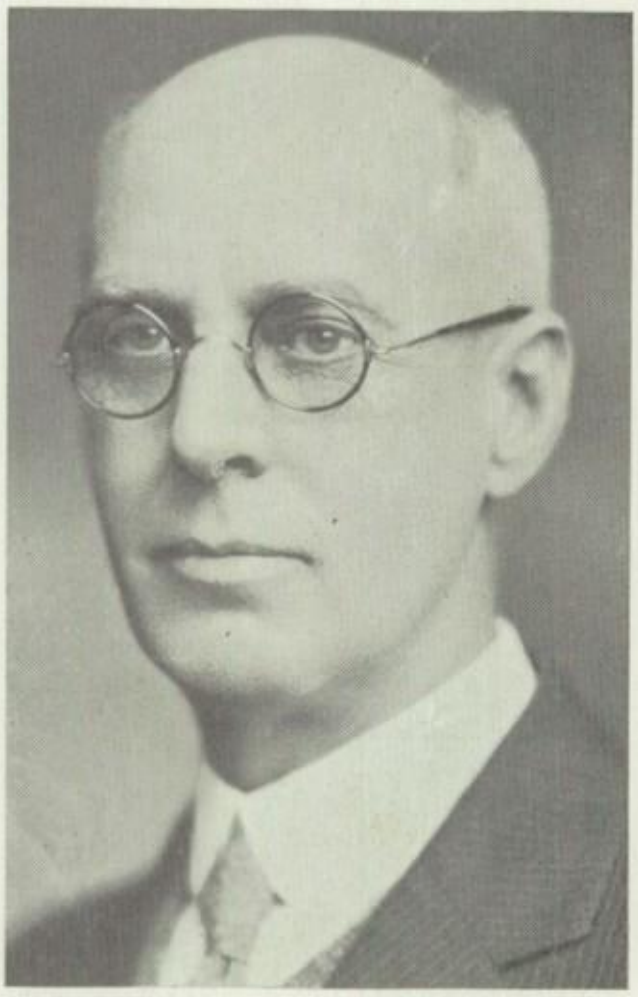
FACULTY



Mr. Fisher

MR. FISHER, as superintendent of the Peoria Schools, has proven himself not only an able but also a charming man. His magnetic personality has made students everywhere in the city his admirers and friends.

Mr. Cromwell

MR. CROMWELL'S capable and efficient way of handling the problems which arise in every student's life has shown his adaptability, and his competence surely qualifies him for the position of principal of Peoria High School.

THE SCHOOL WRITE-UP

THE capable management of Willis Ford, coupled with the invaluable assistance of Ruth Johnson, has added one more successful year to the already innumerable successful years of Peoria High School.

This year the school has acquired a practically new constitution, or, a rather drastic revision of the old one; for it contains the good parts of the old one, and the new improvements which seemed necessary to the growing needs of the school. The most outstanding of these improvements is the judicial department composed of a member of each class plus faculty advisers. With this addition Peoria High School has copied even more closely after the federal government, for it has the same three branches of control: namely, executive, legislative, and judicial

The substitution of the conference room instead of the tardy clinic is another change which involved the whole school. Now, the tardy clinic is under the supervision of Miss Bartlett, who decides whether the excuses offered are legitimate or not. Formerly the student prefects had charge and every one stayed whether he had an excuse or not.

Another step forward made this year was, first, the one toward the lessening of the influence of fraternities and sororities, and second, toward their final abolishment. It is hoped that soon this evil will be abrogated entirely.

The method of marking the grades of the students has also been changed this year. Formerly the grades were E—excellent, G—good, F—fair, P—passing, U—unsatisfactory, and X—total failure; now they are A—excellent, B—good, C—fair, D—passing, E—unsatisfactory.

The school has indeed made progress this year and has paved the way for better conditions in the future years. Much of the credit for this success is due to Mr. Cromwell, Willis Ford, and Ruth Johnson.

IT seems but yesterday, although in reality it was four years ago, that we, the class of 1927, entered Peoria High School. Those four years have been full of studying, hardships, friendships, and pleasures; and we have emerged, the victors. Through the thoughtful care and guidance of our sponsors we have been able to do those things which no other class before us has accomplished.

To begin with we had the exceptional honor of being the first Freshman class to ever organize in P. H. S. Even at that early date in our class career, athletics, leaders, and honor students were discernible. In our Sophomore year, our basketball team came out with flying colors. The Soph-Senior party was a huge success.

The Junior Prom was the biggest feature of the Junior year. The capable committees saw to it that there was nothing lacking in the way of entertainment. Our basketball team did not fail us either during our third year. They again carried off the honors, this time from the class of '26.

In this, our fourth and Senior year at P. H. S., the basketball team became a championship team, having won for three consecutive years. The class also shone in its production of George Ade's three-act comedy, "Just Out of College."

The class memorial is to be a built-in, semi-circular information desk to be built in the front hall.

Senior week was the scene of many brilliant events: Hobo Day, Class Day, Baccalaureate sermon, Senior Ball. As a climax to these wonderful four years came our graduation, and then, adieu.

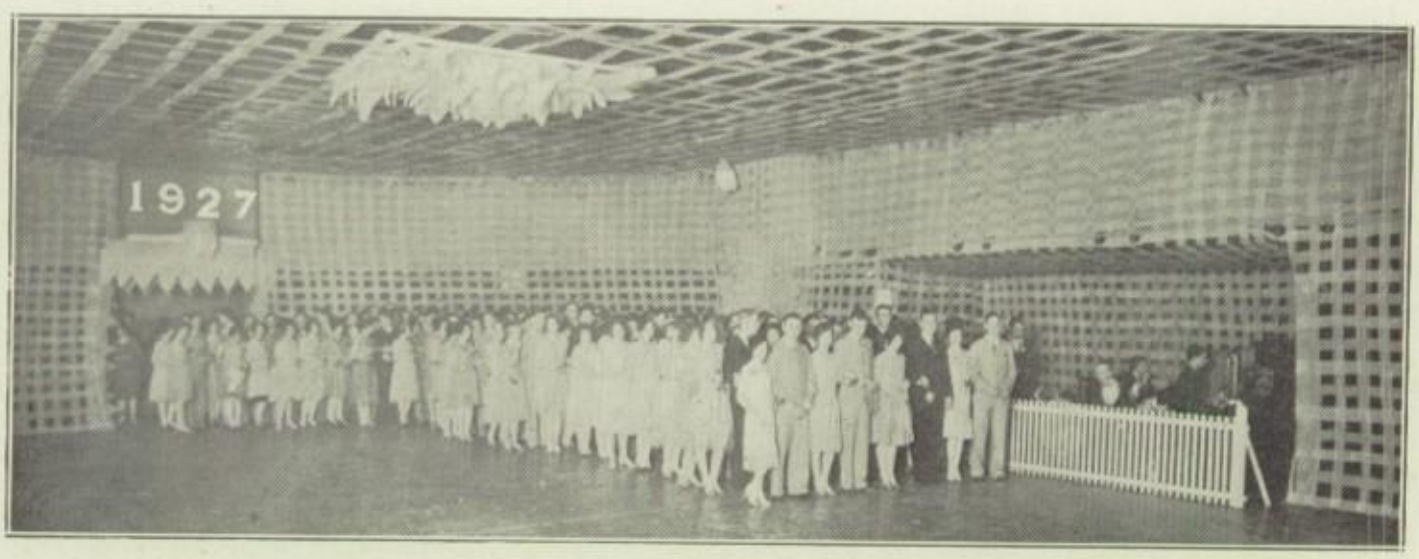
JUNIORS



JUNIOR CLASS

Robert Owen	President
Elizabeth Findley	Vice-President
Jack Elliott	Secretary
Carlisle Whitten	Treasurer
Miss Neville, Mr. Damon	Advisers

THIS year's Junior class is one of the largest that Peoria High has ever had. One of their first activities was the Junior-Freshman party, which proved to be most successful. Each Junior took a Freshman with him to the Boys' Gym where they found a peppy orchestra for dancing. The party began with some novel games and stunts. In the course of time a number of Seniors who seemed to have forgotten their dignity for awhile, wandered into the scene of the festivities. When refreshments were served, the entire student body seemed to be well represented.

On April 22, 1927, was the largest undertaking of the class, the Junior Prom. The scene was very effective and decorated in the class colors of rose and silver. The chairman of the decorations committee, Jane Zinn, and her assistants deserve much credit for the beautiful results of their labor. Chuck Adams and his committee obtained Hall Macklin's orchestra from Champaign. The chairmen of the program and finance committees, Lucille McClintick and Carlisle Whitten, respectively, also deserve to be highly commended for their efforts.

The class has contributed a large share to the school athletics. It will long be remembered because of "Art" Verner, captain of Peoria High's greatest basketball team.

The Junior class began a thing which they hope will become a tradition of the class: that is, having a farewell page in the Crest for the Seniors. In a few months these boys and girls will themselves take up the role of Seniors, and the largest share of the school activities will fall on their shoulders.

SAY, Jack, why don't you get to work?"

"Oh, I don't know what to write."

"Easiest thing in the world! Just tell how the class started in High School and a few more things like that. You don't have to make it very long."

"Well you know so much about it, do it yourself. Will you?"

"Certainly! Here it is,—'Twas a bright and sunshiny morn—"

"Forget it! I want something sensible."

"Well then, try this:

"We were 545 in number, not the least acquainted with the school or people —but soonly moreso. As soon as we, the class of 1929, had become accustomed to the ways of the High School, and some of the greenness had worn off, we began to do things."

"Right you are."

"We joined many clubs, and the boys' interest in athletics led them in the direction of football, basketball, and baseball teams. Alvah Presley made the football squad both his Freshman and his Sophomore year. George Soper won an enviable place in athletics, and helped bring honor to his school and class. Grarye was chosen as the best District Section and All-State forward in basketball. When it came to football and basketball another member of our class was there, Russell Page. Marshall Allen and Wilbur Bouton not only added weight, but also force and victory to the football squad. Marvin Jones and Jack Hartquist also contributed to the laurels of P. H. S., while Benjamin Taylor goes 'over the top' when it comes to pole vaulting.

"When we came back as Sophomores, we awed the Freshman a little, of course, and then began to run the school,—at least we thought we did. We organized early and are still helping to make the mill go round, and—"

"Yes, you are still making the mill go round."

"Say, if you want me to finish this, keep your mouth—"

"Go on. I didn't tell you to stop."

"Well, now I have forgotten what I was going to say."

"Can't help it. I am glad you got all that out of your system."

"Don't get fresh."

"I won't. I'm a Sophomore."

FRESHMAN CLASS

Robert Lenz	Secretary
Walter B. Tobias	Treasurer
Miss G. Coppock	Adviser
Mr. W. H. Arbingast	Adviser

THERE'S not much to say about Freshmen, just because they're Freshmen. But we organized—that's more than some Freshies did—and at our first meeting showed our superior intelligence by electing Miss Coppock and Mr. Arbingast for sponsors of the class. At the second meeting we elected our officers. These officers were nominated by a committee consisting of Helen Price, Robert Bahr, Jack Rossetter, and Julia Clark. After this we had a small meeting for the purpose of appropriating money for the Freshman pictures.

Our social career started in November, when the Juniors gave us a party with ice cream 'n everything, at which we tried to show our appreciation, but, no doubt, acted our age.

The class consists of 244 boys and 253 girls, making a grand total of 497. Of these about 250 are academic students, or at least started that way, expecting to be Freshmen again—in college. The next are commercial students or those taking general courses, preparing for the smaller colleges, or business colleges, or even some to work!

We are made up of all kinds of public schools. Franklin has contributed the most to the high school, next in order is Columbia, then White. After these come Glen Oak, Whittier, Washington, Longfellow, Irving, Peoria Heights, Loucks, Lincoln, Greeley, McKinley, and also the country schools have contributed about fifty of the members of the class.

With such a start, with such fine sponsors, officers, and origin, the class of '30 has no excuse, nor will I hope need any, for not prospering.

THIS is the third year of student government at Peoria High School, and the sixth year for the student council; this has not been an idle year for either.

The first attempt was a plan whereby each student of the school was to pay a nickel a month, and in return the council would give them ten science movies and five instructive lectures, by men of world renown.

The council sponsored a series of evening dances as well as afternoon dances, and also the Peoria High-Manual Homecoming Dance after the Thanksgiving game.

The School Loyalty song has been published in sheet music form and sold for ten cents apiece. This was done through the student council.

A new constitution has been drafted embodying the three departments usually found in all democratic governments; namely, executive, legislative, and judicial.

STUDENT PREFECTS

Oscar Seeger	Chief
Robert Conigisky	Assistant Chief
Katherine Jamison	Captain Girls' Study Hall
Edwin Carey	Captain Boys' Study Hall
Robert White	Captain Corridor Prefects

FOUR years ago an organization known as the Student Police came into Peoria High School. Later on the name was changed to Student Prefects. The duties of this organization are manyfold.

An ushering force for the performances in the Peoria High School Auditorium was needed, so the Student Prefects took charge. They placed the assistant chief at the head of the ushers. Besides this duty, the assistant chief also takes care of the clerical work of the organization, takes roll call, and keeps a record of each prefect.

The Student Prefects are in charge of the study halls. They see that order is kept, passes are signed, and study halls are kept clean. By cooperation between the study hall officers, captains and prefects, student government has proved to be successful in the study halls.

The corridor prefects run errands for the office and teachers, see that the washrooms and halls are kept free from idlers, see that order is kept among the students during noon hours and during class periods in the halls, and collect absence slips from each room every hour. When visitors come to Peoria High they are escorted to whatever classes they desire to visit by the prefects. Through the efforts of the captain and his assistants the halls have been kept in good condition and a great deal of service has been rendered the school.

However, the student prefects are not only to keep order, but also to uphold the ideals of Peoria High School. They are to act as an example to the rest of the student body. The efforts of the student prefects have done a great deal to make student self-government a truly successful democracy.

DEBATING CLUB

Genevieve Alloy	President
Elvira Ewert	Vice-President
Walter Berkman	Secretary and Publicity Manager
Miss Daniels	Adviser
Mr. Arbingast	Adviser
Mr. Zehr	Adviser

THE forensic side of Peoria High School has come to stay. With the Debating Club as a medium, the forensic activities are certain to be perpetuated and encouraged.

This much was evident in the success of the Debating Club this year. The club is here to stay. Students whose interests lie in debating, oratory, or any form of public speaking, may find ample opportunity and real encouragement through this club.

The Debating Club is only of a few years standing but it has already carved a sizeable niche in the life at Peoria High School. It counts among its members this year many of the class leaders and others to whom the advancement of Peoria High School is a primary consideration.

Debating has proved itself and will continue to do so as long as there is any tangible organization or support behind it, such as the present debating club.

DEBATING TEAMS

DEBATING this year has been successful under the careful guidance of the faculty advisers Miss Daniels, Mr. Arbingast, and Mr. Zehr. The student body manifested much enthusiasm, and it was through no fault of theirs that the two teams were unable to win the triangular debate in which they participated. The schools of the Big Twelve who made up the triangle were Pekin, Manual, and Peoria High School. Pekin and Manual debated at Pekin, Manual and Peoria High at Manual, and Pekin and Peoria High at Peoria High.

Our affirmative team, composed of Elvira Ewert, Jane Zinn, and Severin Langhoff, debated in the auditorium of P. H. S., while the negative team consisting of Robert Bell, Olive Pfander, and Edgar Warner, met Manual at Manual. The decisions in both cases were exceedingly close, and both teams lost by very small margins.

The subject of the debates was: "Resolved: that the Philippine Islands should be given their independence within a period of five years."

The teams worked hard in preparing the written speeches and also the delivery. For weeks they were either at school or at the library laboriously pouring over statistics and reading material which would help them win the debates. It was not lack of work or preparation that caused the decisions to go in favor of the opposing teams. It is hoped that next year with the student body as a whole, taking an interest in the debates, and with the experience gained this year, that Peoria High School will carry away the honors.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Edgar Warner	President
Eleanor Jack	Vice-President
Dorothy Lee	Recording Secretary
Ruth Johnson	Alumni Secretary

MEMBERSHIP in the National Honor Society is the highest honor which students can attain in their high school life. The high standard which is set should be the standard which all students should strive to reach. The qualities necessary for membership are: scholarship, character, leadership, service.

The faculty committee is comprised of Miss Stewart, adviser, Miss Boynton, Mrs. Belsley, Mrs. Wisman, and Mr. Epstein.

The present members of the club are the following:

Donald Morris	Joe Golden	Marian Frye
Howard Landis	Marjorie Lucas	Iola Claypool
Edna Johnson	Etta McElhaney	Lucille Triebel
John Radley	Elvira Ewert	Edith Shaw
William Miles	Eleanor Jack	Nellie Alexander
Edgar Warner	George Parker	Lorenz Tower
Katherine Jamison	George McMurray	Frank Tingwall
Severin Langhoff	Dorothy Lee	Phyllis Dargel
Janet Frankel	Harris Waterman	Olive Pfander
Ruth Johnson	Eleanor Weers	Margaret Shepherdson

OPHELEIA

1927 marks the fourth year of Opheleia's existence. It is the girl's honorary society of Peoria High School and is characterized by the ideals of service, character, loyalty, and friendliness. Opheleia girls are elected by the faculty, and because of this feel the responsibility not only of giving their best in school activities, but also of trying to maintain a high scholastic standing. Opheleia is divided into three chapters: Gamma—Sophomore girls; Beta—Junior girls; Alpha—Senior girls.

The first act of service Opheleia did this year was the taking charge of the football banquet. At the early part of the year the girls organized and were assigned various duties. Each hour of the school day there is an Opheleian aiding Miss Fisher in the library. There is also a girl to help Miss Bartlett each hour, and different ones to take charge of Lost and Found.

The loyal and able sponsors of Opheleia are: Miss Hawkins, Miss Boynton, Miss Hayes, Miss Ottenheimer, Miss Wilson, and Miss Coppock.

The Alpha chapter of Opheleia consists of Phyllis Dargel, President; Elizabeth Furst, Vice-President; Janet Frankel, Secretary-Treasurer; Helen Butler, Jeannette Boggess, Aurena Cramer, Iola Claypool, Felicite Davenport, Josephine Ernst, Elvira Ewert, Eleanor Heffner, Edna Johnson, Katherine Jamison, Ruth Johnson, Marjorie Lucas, Helen Willard, Lucille Triebel, Virginia Smith.

The members of Beta chapter are: Mary Chessman, President; Bernice Grabow, Vice-President; Rosalind Fisher, Secretary-Treasurer; Frances Beyer, Helen Berquist, June Bushey, Mary Easton, Lucile McClintick, Margaret Rutherford, Marzelle Reed, Edna Reese, Annabel Straesser.

The Gamma chapter consists of Ada Mae Albright, Pauline Chown, Janice Erzinger, Frances Eckard, Marjorie Mendenhall, Bernice Paith.

PHILAXIA

PHILAXIA, Senior Boys' Honor Society, is most vitally concerned with the giving of service to the school. To gain entrance to Philaxia the society demands not only that the members be active in benefiting Peoria High, but also demands a continued service to the school.

When the need of promoting oratory in Peoria High School was seen, Philaxia established its annual Oratorical Contest in which any Peoria High School pupil may compete for medals of honor in oratory and extemporaneous speaking.

Philaxia fills the breach whenever some worthwhile plan needs support for its execution. The society added to the Senior Class Memorial Fund by selling refreshments at the Sectional Tournament.

Because Philaxia members are successful workers in school, it is supposed that they will be leaders in the civic life of the community. Through Philaxia they will better understand the needs of the school system and will prove a powerful influence in carrying out progressive educational measures in the future.

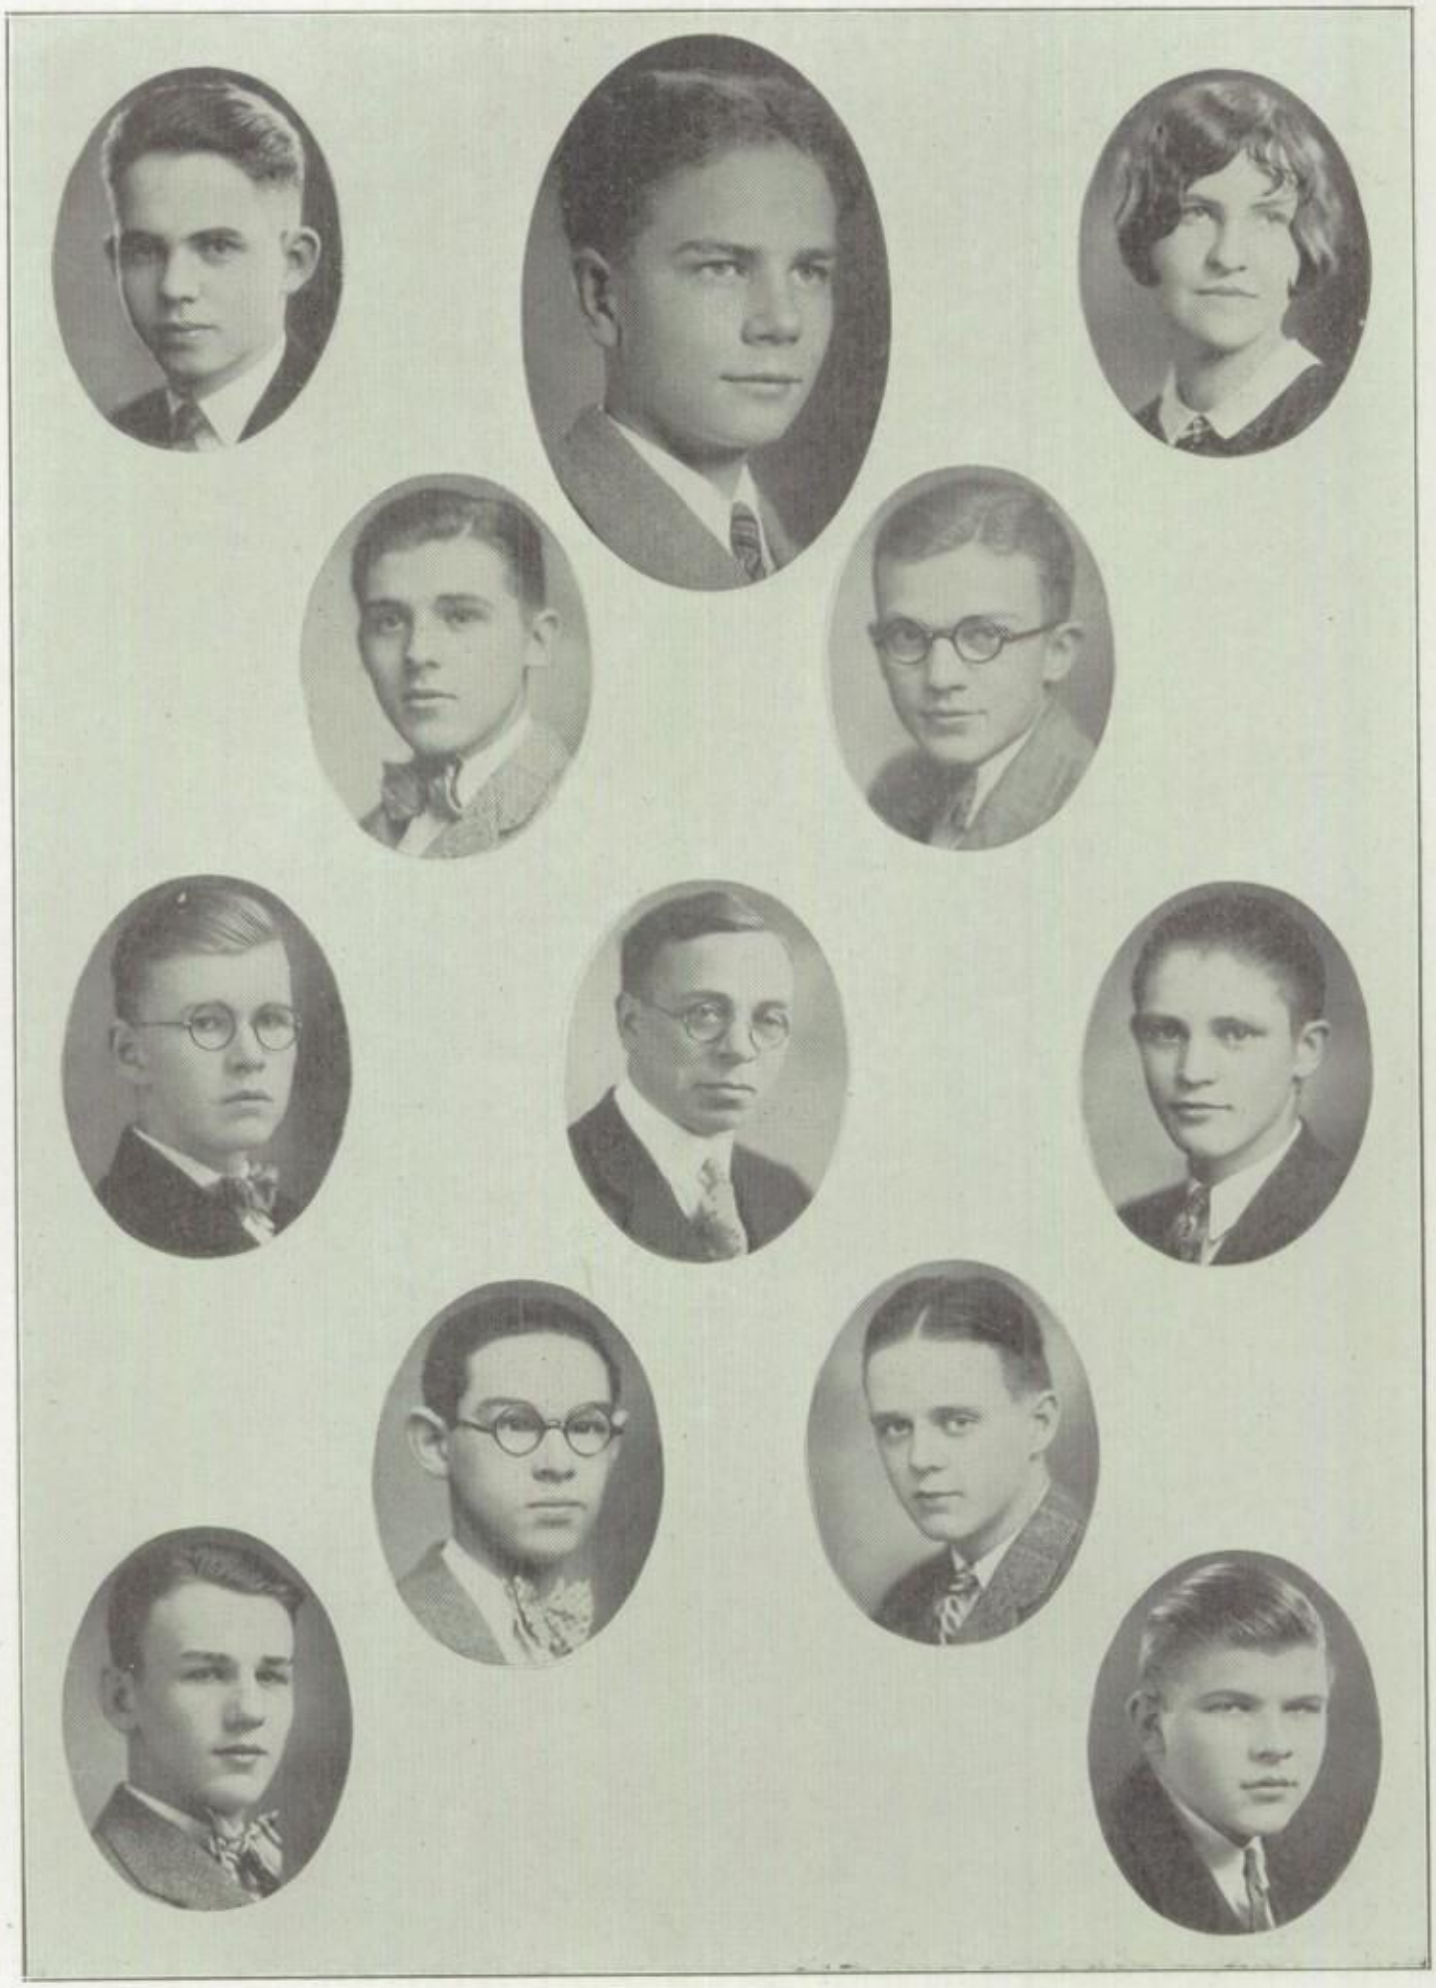
Although Philaxia is an organization with a serious purpose, it does not curb the pleasurable side of life. In proof of this Philaxia points with pride to its Annual Phrolic, where "Boys will be boys, but some will be girls." This stage production is held the night before graduation. Philaxia here gained a reputation for spreading cheer through its clever songs and dances, Mr. Epstein, faculty sponsor, devotes much of his time to writing music and words to be sung by the he-man female choruses. Mrs. Epstein coaches the boys in their dances, and the audiences are always delighted to see the nimble-footed boys perform.

Its annual post-graduate banquet also proves that the boys love a good time. Here pledges and alumni mingle, forming a contact for graduates with the old school.

The emblem of Philaxia is symbolic. It consists of three logs. The bottom one represents the entire student body, the middle one the workers, the top one those few who become members of Philaxia. On this log is inscribed the year of graduation; on the second log is pictured a man with his shoulders to the wheel. Divisions of the wheel symbolize service, loyalty, and character.

The initiation consists of three phases. In the first, the sponsors pledge the individual, among other things, to uphold good sportsmanship and the good name of the school. The second phase is a good fellowship meeting with its humour and jocundity. The boys remember this phase for a long time, for it is very impressive. The final phase is a formal presentation of the members before the student body. It is here that the school learns the principles for which Philaxia stands.

Each year, as the school grows, and the significance of Philaxia grows clearer to the school, its membership is more highly prized.



THE OPINION

THE Opinion has just completed its second year as a weekly paper. It has owned its own printing equipment for more than a year and a half. The machines have been operated by the class in printing, which is under the direction of Mr. Muirhead.

The paper was considerably handicapped at the first of the year, because all but two of the members of the last year's staff had graduated the previous June. However, the classes in newswriting and advertising came to its aid and filled most of the vacant positions on the staff. Only the exchange and humor departments had editors from outside in charge of them. The news editor was chosen for a period of one month from the most promising writers in the journalism class. When the term expired, another news editor was appointed for the same length of time. Thus a larger number of students interested in newspaper work were able to acquire some practical experience in journalism. The following have been news editors: Dorothy Murphy, Edgar Walker, McKee Moffett, Frederick Hohn, Mary Weber, Bernice Welty, and Burnette Smith.

The other students enrolled in the newswriting class acted as reporters for the Opinion. The news editor in charge gave out assignments in class and gave the different students various departments to cover during his or her term of office. The news stories published in the Opinion thus counted as classroom work for the students.

The method of distributing the paper has also been changed this year. During the first part of this year and all of last year, the circulation manager and his assistants took the papers around to the advisory group room of the subscribers from the Opinion room. However, it was found that every member of the circulation staff had a class during the seventh hour, the only time during which the Opinion could be distributed. To remedy this situation, the distribution of the paper was turned over to the boys in the press room. Now the Opinion is carried directly from the place it is printed to the room to which the subscriber comes to receive his copy.

The most of the work has been done by the class under the supervision of Mr. Muirhead, faculty adviser of the publication, and John Radley, editor.

The Opinion room has been a busy place this year. The addition of three new typewriters and a counter have given the room a business-like appearance, and often the "habitués" live up to the atmosphere.

The Opinion is larger than the usual school paper. It consists of four pages, each of which has six eighteen-inch columns, and each column is filled with real, live news. The purpose of the paper has been to give information and news of the school to the students.

THE CREST

IN completing its third year of independence from the Opinion publication, the Crest ends the year with the highest attainment of administrative ability.

Three years ago the students were called upon to choose a name suitable to represent the annual of Peoria High School. At this time, also, a complete change was made in the managing of the publication. An entirely new staff was chosen to edit the year book, one which was absolutely different than the Opinion staff, and which had an entirely different aim. The annual is edited for the express purpose of giving an orderly account of the events of the year. It is the culmination of the year's activities, and is, in reality, for the purpose of honoring the Seniors.

One of the outstanding features of the book this year is the color—maroon with a bronze inset. This is different than the usual run of annuals, most of them being blue, brown, or black.

The staff wishes to thank the representatives of the different organizations who contributed the write-ups for their respective clubs. The "transportation managers," or those who lent their cars, were heartily appreciated by all the weary members of the staff. The book was also helped along towards its final copy by the office force who so graciously let the staff use the files and the telephone for gaining information. There were many others who helped the staff in small duties, and we thank each and every one.

Throughout the entire book there has been one, general scheme or plan: that of putting the most important things first and following these of lesser importance. In only one section was this plan unworkable: the organizations. Another idea worked out this year was that of making pen sketches of the presidents of the various classes to be used as the cut for that section. This has met with very commendable success, and has at least proved "different" than most books. And that was another purpose of the staff: to have the book different from the others.

The staff hopes that the Crest wil be received by the students in the same spirit in which it is given. Their best work and effort have gone into its making. The book has mistakes and imperfections that it was impossible to change, mainly because of lack of time. But with all its lack of perfection, it is given in the faith that the student body will accept it in the knowledge that anything human or created by humans may represent their best even with mistakes, for to make mistakes is human.

OUR English Club of Peoria High School is one of the oldest and most active ones in the school.

All Juniors and Seniors with an average of 80 in English are eligible. The chief purpose of this club is to create a wider interest in composition, public speaking, drama, and literature; and to give those students who have interests in those lines of work a chance to express themselves.

The club gave a cutting of Shakespeare's "As You Like It," which was a great success. The cast was picked from English Club members and coached by Miss Daniels.

The programs have included spelling matches, pantomimes, short stories, poetry, and readings, some of which were original.

FLEUR DE LYS

JANET FRANKEL	President
ELEANOR JACK	Vice-President
EDNA REESE	Secretary
WILLIAM COOLEY	Treasurer

THE Fleur de Lys, or French Club, of Peoria High School has enjoyed a happy year under the leadership of Mlle. Bunch and Mlle. Buswell. The purpose of the French club is to show that French is really a living language that can be put to very enjoyable use. The meetings, held on the first Monday of each month, are conducted entirely in French.

The greatest accomplishment of the club this year was the presentation of two French plays, given in February: one a farce in two acts called "Cherchez la Femme" and written and coached by Mlle. Bunch; the other "Au Rat Mort," a scene in a Paris cafe during an American school teachers' convention in Paris, and coached by Mlle. Buswell.

At the Christmas meeting of the club, Mlle. Naomi Lagron gave the club a short talk in French on Christmas customs in France.

At the January meeting several of the members of the Club gave a resumé of the opera "Faust," by the French composer Gounod.

The meetings of the French club were thoroughly enjoyed by all the members, and everyone learned to consider the French language as a serviceable one.

THE SPANISH CLUB

THELMA WHITE . . . . . President
DOROTHY BROCK . . . . . Vice-President
JANE ZINN . . . . . Secretary-Treasurer

THE Spanish Club is a comparatively new organization in Peoria High School. It was formed in March, 1926, and consequently had little time during the remainder of the school year to prepare or carry out many plans. However, a membership campaign which was started has shown some splendid results. All second and third year students of Spanish, and first year students with a grade of A, are eligible to membership in the club.

The purpose of the club is to better acquaint the students with the Spanish language, and the countries in which it is spoken. To carry out this purpose the program committee has worked very earnestly and have tried to have reports on Spanish customs or ideas in every meeting. Several reports of this kind have been given and have proved very interesting.

For one of the meetings an especially interesting and amusing program was planned and executed. After the business meeting a menu was written on the board in Spanish, and pictures of the food were passed by the waiters. After this imaginary eating, real refreshments were served.

At a later meeting a spelling bee was held. There have also been several musical programs, and a play "La Broma," or "The Joke," was given.

The club wishes to thank the faculty sponsors, Miss Clausen and Miss Wilde, for the time and help that they have given the organization.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

PHYLLIS DARGEL . . . . . President
OLIVE PFANDER . . . . . Vice-President
ELEANOR HALL . . . . . Secretary
EDGAR WARNER . . . . . Treasurer

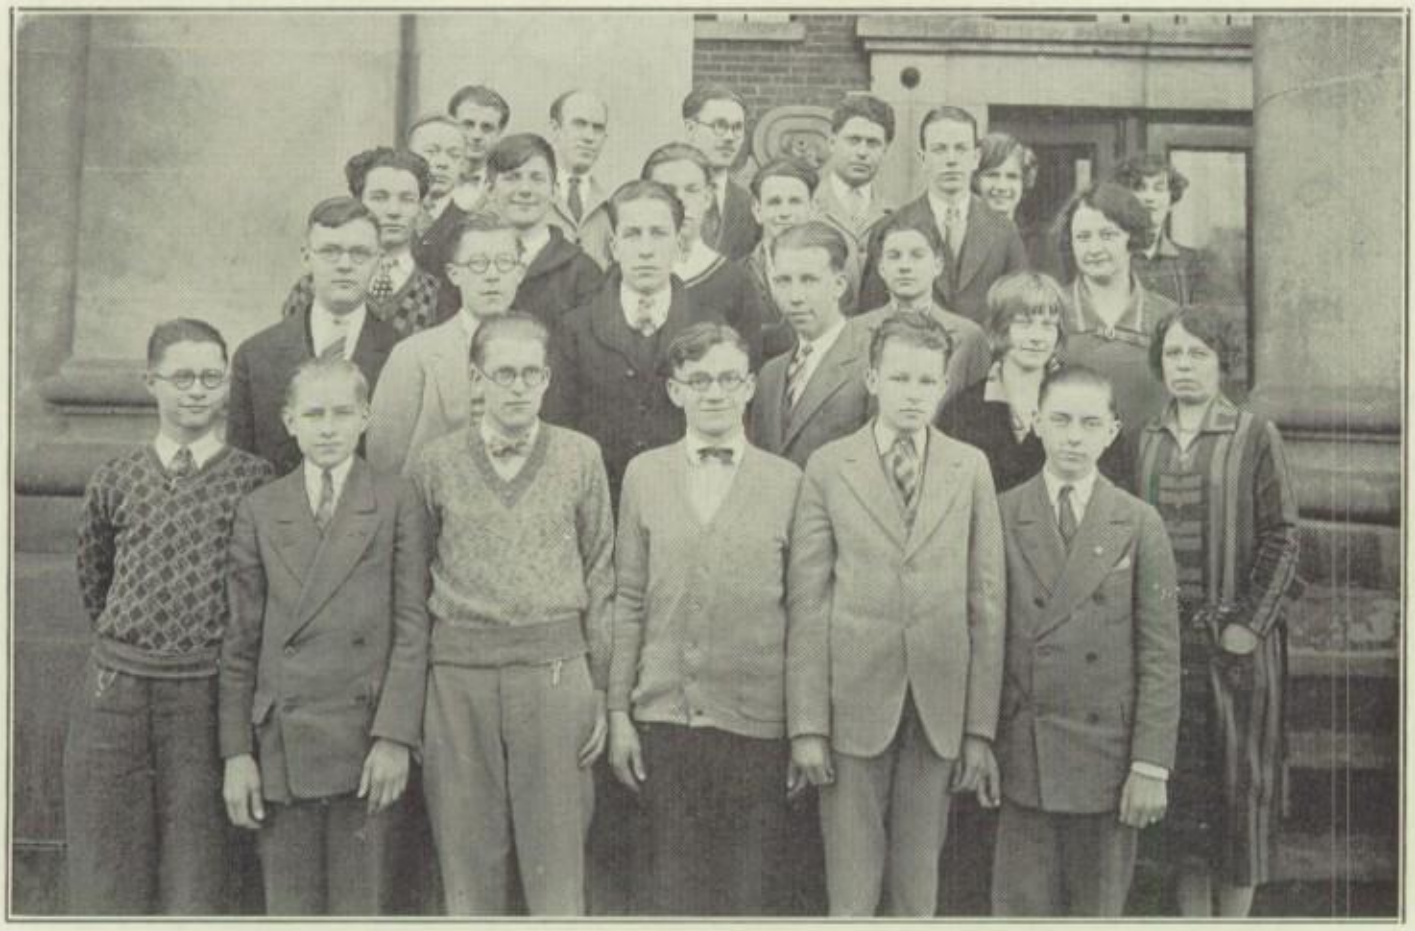
FOUR years ago Social Science Club was started under the able supervision of Mr. Heghin for the purpose of creating a greater interest in social science. This year it has offered the students of History, Economics, Geography, and Sociology, an opportunity of hearing many efficient and respected men of the city and out of town speak on topics dealing with local and national affairs.

The club membership is open to all students taking social science subjects with an average of C or above, or to those interested in the subject.

The membership and program committees have worked faithfully this year with the assistance of the club advisers, Miss Watson and Mr. Heghin.

Each year the club sponsors one large social affair by means of which it endeavors to get each member better acquainted with each other. This year the social event was held in May.

The club, with the help of the department faculty, Mr. Burns, Mr. Current, Mr. Clifford, Miss Neville, Miss E. Brown, Miss Newell, Mr. Damon, Mr. McCormick, Miss Watson, and Mr. Heghin, offers the members a place for the discussion of the principles of good citizenship, and the opportunity to hear good speakers on these subjects.



SCIENCE AND MATH CLUB

GEORGE COMSTOCK . . . . . President
CLARIS COURTRIGHT . . . . . Vice-President
CARROL HINNERS . . . . . Secretary
LAWRENCE MONROE . . . . . Treasurer

THE purpose of the Science and Math Club is two-fold: to stimulate interest in science; to discuss various subjects which cannot be taken up in detail in the class-room. These discussions are very instructive as well as interesting for not only do many students discuss subjects about which they have obtained outside information, but also teachers give talks on topics in which they are especially interested. During the last year Mr. Epstein, the adviser, has given several instructive lectures and demonstrations. One of his topics was "Bugs," and another "Dinosaurs, Whence, Whither, and Why." The latter talk touched the subject of evolution. It is hoped that this large and vital subject will be discussed at length at some time later.

Students have given talks about subjects of common interest, such as hypnotism, prehistoric animals, and various topics of advance physics and chemistry.

This year the club has met every two weeks either afternoon or evening. The meetings have been well attended, there being audiences from between twenty and thirty, although it is hoped that next year more students from biology and chemistry classes will belong. Active membership in the club is limited to students who have A or B in science or mathematics and an A or B in some other subject. Anyone may become an associate member, however, if he is interested in science or mathematics and wishes to learn more about them.

OUR Tri-S Club of Peoria High School is the high school branch of the Girl Reserves, members of the Y. W. C. A. The purpose is "To find and give the best"; the slogan: "To face life squarely."

The high school club is divided into the Junior club, Freshman and Sophomore girls, and the Senior club, Junior and Senior girls. The two clubs work for the same goal and hold joint meetings, but the work, divided into social, publicity and service heads, is carried on separately.

The work of the service committee of the Junior Tri-S, under the leadership of Eleanor Hiatt, took place in the day nursery once a week, at which time classes were held and several girls led the kiddies in games and frolics.

Classes were held at the Neighborhood House under the management of the Senior Tri-S. Each class, one for the older girls and one for the younger, was instructed in some handiwork. Helen Sommers was chairman. Under the leadership of Ruth Johnson, the Neighborhood House families are visited.

In April a play called "Maiden Over the Wall" was given under the joint management of Manual and Peoria High and was a decided success.

HI-Y CLUB

Edwin Carey	President
Claris Courtright	Vice-President
Theodore Page	Secretary
George Comstock	Treasurer

OUR Hi-Y Club of Peoria High School has experienced a very successful year. It began its year with a membership of 20, and has increased to 30.

The Hi-Y, as the name implies, is under the supervision of the Y. M. C. A. Its purpose is: To create and maintain high standards of Christian character in the school and the community.

The meetings are held weekly and are of three kinds; first, the supper meeting; second, discussion meeting; third, business meeting. For the supper meeting a special speaker is obtained who gives some helpful advice that will be a big aid in future life. At the discussion meeting religious topics are discussed under the leadership of the school adviser. All business which arises during the month is taken care of at the business meeting.

One of the chief enterprises of the Hi-Y club is the 4 C's campaign held each spring. Another venture this year was the Carnival, an annual event.

This club is open to all Juniors and Seniors, and second semester Sophomores. Under the able supervision of Mr. Lawyer of the Y. M. C. A., and with the hearty cooperation of the high school adviser, Mr. Clifford, the club has had one of its most successful years.

GLADYS LANGTON . . . . . Secretary
ANNA GIMMING . . . . . Treasurer

OUR Girls' Athletic Association started very enthusiastically last fall with an attendance of eighty at their first meeting.

The first tournament held was won by the Sophomores, captained by Joe Walker, and was in volley ball.

On October 22 an initiation and slumberless party, chaperoned by the Misses Baldauf, Daniels, Bullock, and Buswell, were held at the Y. W. C. A. camp.

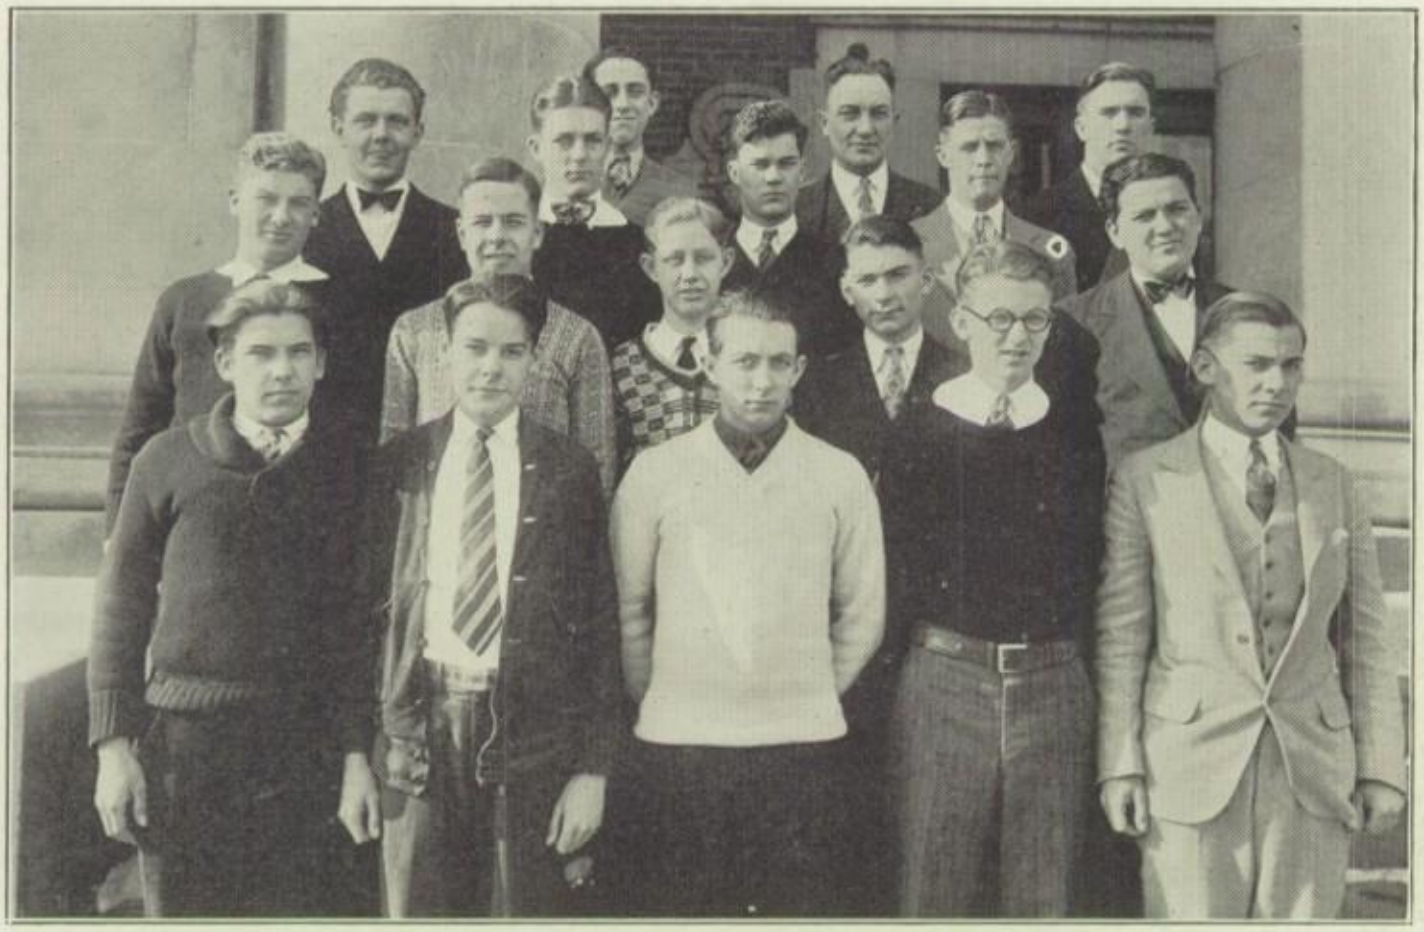
At Christmas time a "kid" party was held in the Girls' Gym.

The basketball tournament started January 25, 1927, and was won by the Orange team. Each member of the winning team received a felt basketball monogram.

A skating party took place April 1, and the year was ended by a stunt show May 13.

The girls receiving awards were: Alta Goin, May Blomeyer, Marietta Carlson, Lucille Triebel—pins; Virginia Selby, Geraldine West—letters; Clara Swords, Betty Shaw, Marjorie Kraker—sweaters.

Much credit is due to Miss Baldauf, faculty adviser, under whose capable management the association has been able to accomplish so much.



C. M. T. C.

THE C. M. T. C., or Citizen's Military Training Camp, is a nation-wide institution organized for the purpose of getting young men together at the United States Army Camps to keep them interested in the defense of their country and to teach them to be good, patriotic citizens.

The C. M. T. C. Club at Peoria High School was formed to sustain interest in C. M. T. C. work and to promote its influence throughout the school.

To go to one of these C. M. T. C. camps is in itself an opportunity to gain health and disciplined trading. All kinds of sports are offered: swimming, baseball, basketball, and volleyball. In charge of the camp activities are capable officers who are willing to help the boys in any way possible.

To join the C. M. T. C. one must first attend a camp at least once. Before being admitted to a camp a thorough physical examination must be undergone.

Non-commissioned officers are made by appointment from the commissioned officers. Everyone works with this goal in view.

The members are:

Don Matthews	Wilbur Gouveia	Karl Hoshor
James Entwistle	William Ross	James Hammer
Edward Lewke	Kermit Henkes	James Kuntz
James Putnam	Arnold Gibbs	Donald Chave
Paul Nixon	Howard Siegfried	Clement Reed

COMMERCIAL CLUB

OLGA MEEDS . . . . . Secretary
HAROLD BREMER . . . . . Treasurer
BURNETTE SMITH . . . . . Club Reporter
MRS. WISMAN, MISS ROBERTS . . . . Advisers

OUR Commercial Club has now added one more year of successful co-operative work, living up to its standard of three previous years. The club was slow to organize, but after once established it has increased until it is one of the largest and most beneficial organizations in the school.

Last year the shorthand and typewriting teams entered contests at Decatur, Normal, and Bloomington. Peoria High placed in all contests entered. At each monthly meeting awards for typewriting and shorthand were given.

One of the most outstanding features of the year was the forming of an Alumni Association. It includes graduates of 1924-1927.

The Commercial Club which mixes pleasure with its work, and thus establishes bonds of friendship among the members, has sponsored several social affairs: in December, a Christmas party; in January, a sleighing party; in March, a "hard-times" party; in April, the boys sponsored a party for the girls; and in May, a picnic.

The climax of the year was the banquet and dance, which was given the latter part of May.

MUSIC CLUB

Emma Strawn	President
Charles Shaver	Vice-President
Annabel Straesser	Secretary
Kenneth Lohnes	Treasurer

THIS year the Music Club has presented several programs rendered by members of P. H. S. Its meetings have been anxiously anticipated and well attended. The efforts of Miss O'Reilly, the faculty sponsor, and Katherine Hoagland, chairman of the program committee, have been appreciated by all the members and visitors of the Music Club.. The following programs proved delightful to the audiences:

1.	Vocal Solo	Virginia Reed
	Piano Solo	Helen McGrew
2.	Piano Solo	Ben Rauch
3.	Piano Solo	James Van Cleave
	Vocal Solo	Annabel Straesser
	Piano Solo	Fred Block
	Vocal Solo	Bernice Grabow
4.	Piano Solo	Elizabeth Meyer
	Vocal Solo	Emma Strawn
	Piano Solo	Katherine Jamison
	Clarinet Solo	Edward Lewke

THE GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

OUR Girls' Glee Club this year is divided into two parts: the Freshman and Sophomore girls, who meet seventh hour Wednesdays and Thursdays; the upper classmen, who meet Mondays and Wednesdays.

The Girls' Glee Club has been very active this year. It is composed of an unusually fine group of voices, and, under the capable leadership of Miss O'Reilly, has accomplished many things.

First the combined Glee Clubs furnished music for the Christmas presentation of the Jusendra Club.

On the evening of March 4, 1927, the combined Glee Clubs presented the delightful operetta "Sailor Maids." This production was a success which has not been surpassed. The leading roles, sung by Annabel Straesser, Martha Schimpff, Walter Lewke, Edward Lewke, Russell Wharry, Walter Hendricks, and Lewis Bartley, were well portrayed. A large share of the glory of the operetta belongs to Miss O'Reilly, who directed the music, and Miss Cornelius, who coached the speakers. Miss Dixon played the piano accompaniment in the orchestra in her usual high-grade manner. The mixed choruses from the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs of sixty voices added much to the atmosphere of the operetta.

On May 6 and 7, the representative chorus and soloists went to Decatur to compete in the state contest.

Throughout the year the Glee Club has been a constant source of pleasure to the members as well as to the audience, and in her first year Miss O'Reilly has won a place all her own in the hearts of all the members.

THE BOYS' GLEE CLUB

THE Boys' Glee Club, under the direction of Miss O'Reilly, has had a very eventful and successful year. Its membership has been between twenty-five and thirty.

During the first part of the year much enjoyment was derived from the use of song slides. Some of the familiar songs which were sung from the screen are: "Roses of Picardy," "The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise," and "On the Road to Mandalay."

At the Christmas Jusendra program the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs sang two numbers: "Silent Night," and "Christmas Chimes." Also a double quartet composed of members of both clubs sang during the play.

Then followed the several weeks of earnest preparation for the two-act operetta, "Sailor Maids," which was given by the combined glee clubs on March 4. From the opening choruses of the sailor girls and life guards to the final scene, the audience was held by the dash and liveliness of the music. Much favorable comment was heard on the excellent rendition of the songs.

Following this production the glee club spent two months in preparing for the Big Twelve music contest held in Decatur on May 6 and 7. The Girls' Glee Club and the orchestra were entered in this meet, and also vocalist soloists of the glee clubs and instruments.

All in all this has been a very profitable year to the members of the club, both in an entertaining and an instructive way.

THE ORCHESTRA

THE Peoria High School Orchestra, under the direction of Miss O'Reilly, has spent a very progressive year.

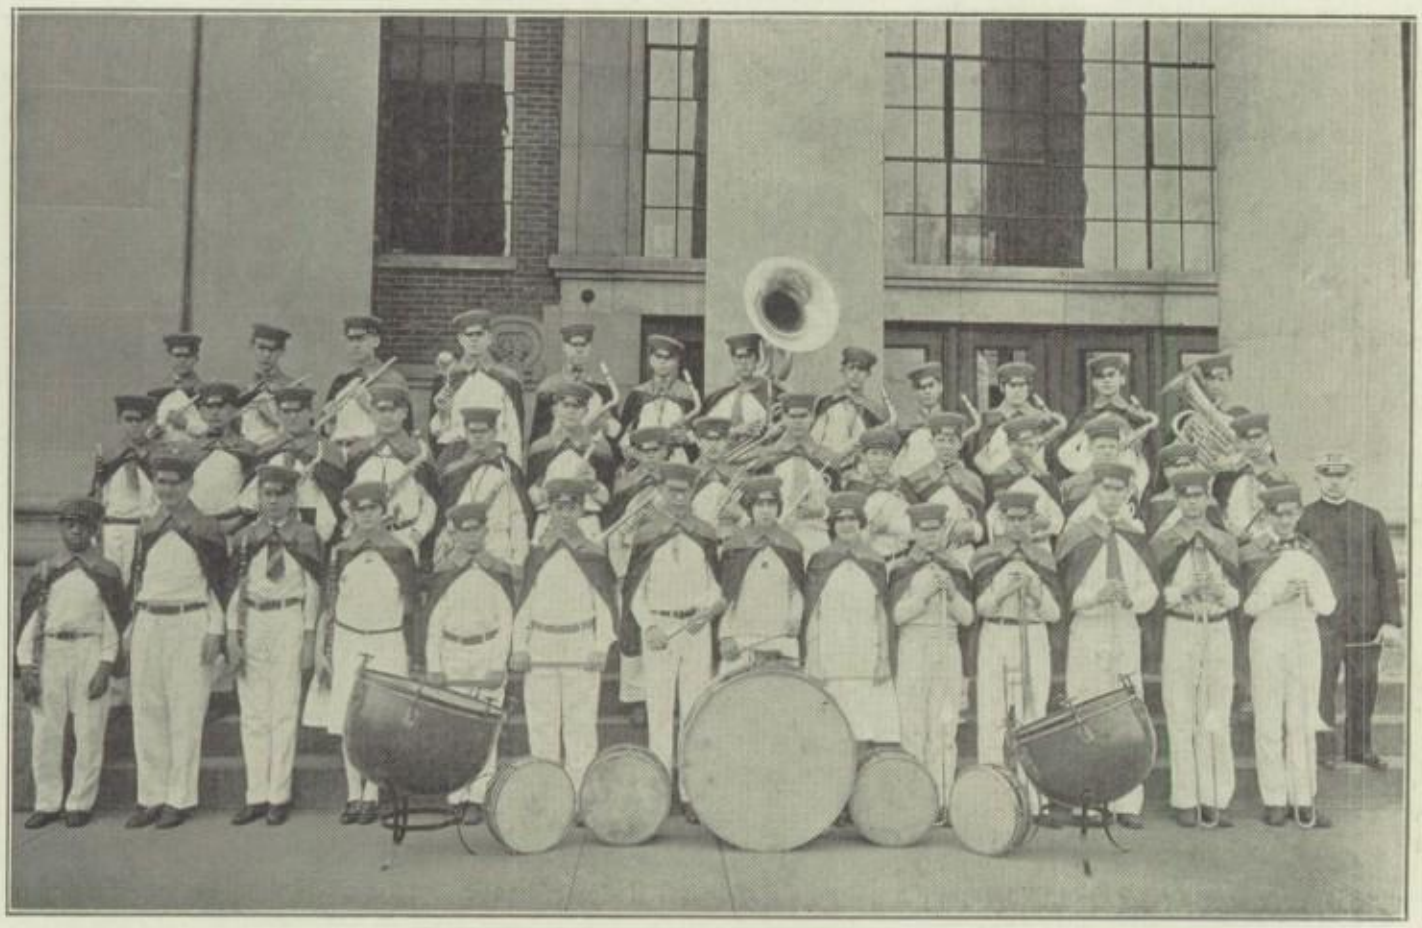
On March 4 the orchestra played for the operetta, "Sailor Maids," which was given in the auditorium.

Also, on April 5, it played for the annual evening production of Jusendra, "Seven Keys to Baldpate."

Two of the members of the orchestra, Marjorie White, celloist, and Clifford Partridge, violinist, represented Peoria High School in the National High School Orchestra, which met at Dallas, Texas, February 26 to March 4. This orchestra played for the national board of superintendents of the National Education Association.

The membership of the Peoria High Orchestra is as follows: first violins, Frederick Hohn, Clifford Partridge, Illabeth Grill, Harry Case, Lela Gambach, Frances White, Henry Neeser, Lucille Hester, Robert Graham; second violins, Carol Hitchcock, Auren Muir, Sumner Stein, Wayne May, Lucille Dalton, Howard Tess, Frances Theis, Betty Best; flute, Clarence Coons, David Levitin, Amert Hedley; clarinet, Robert Bahr, Walter Vincent; cornet, Gene Hercules; cello, Marjorie White, Frances Muir; drums, Bruce W. Clark; piano, Helen McGrew; conductor, Miss Alice O'Reilly.

The orchestra will need several new members next year and anyone is welcome to try out.



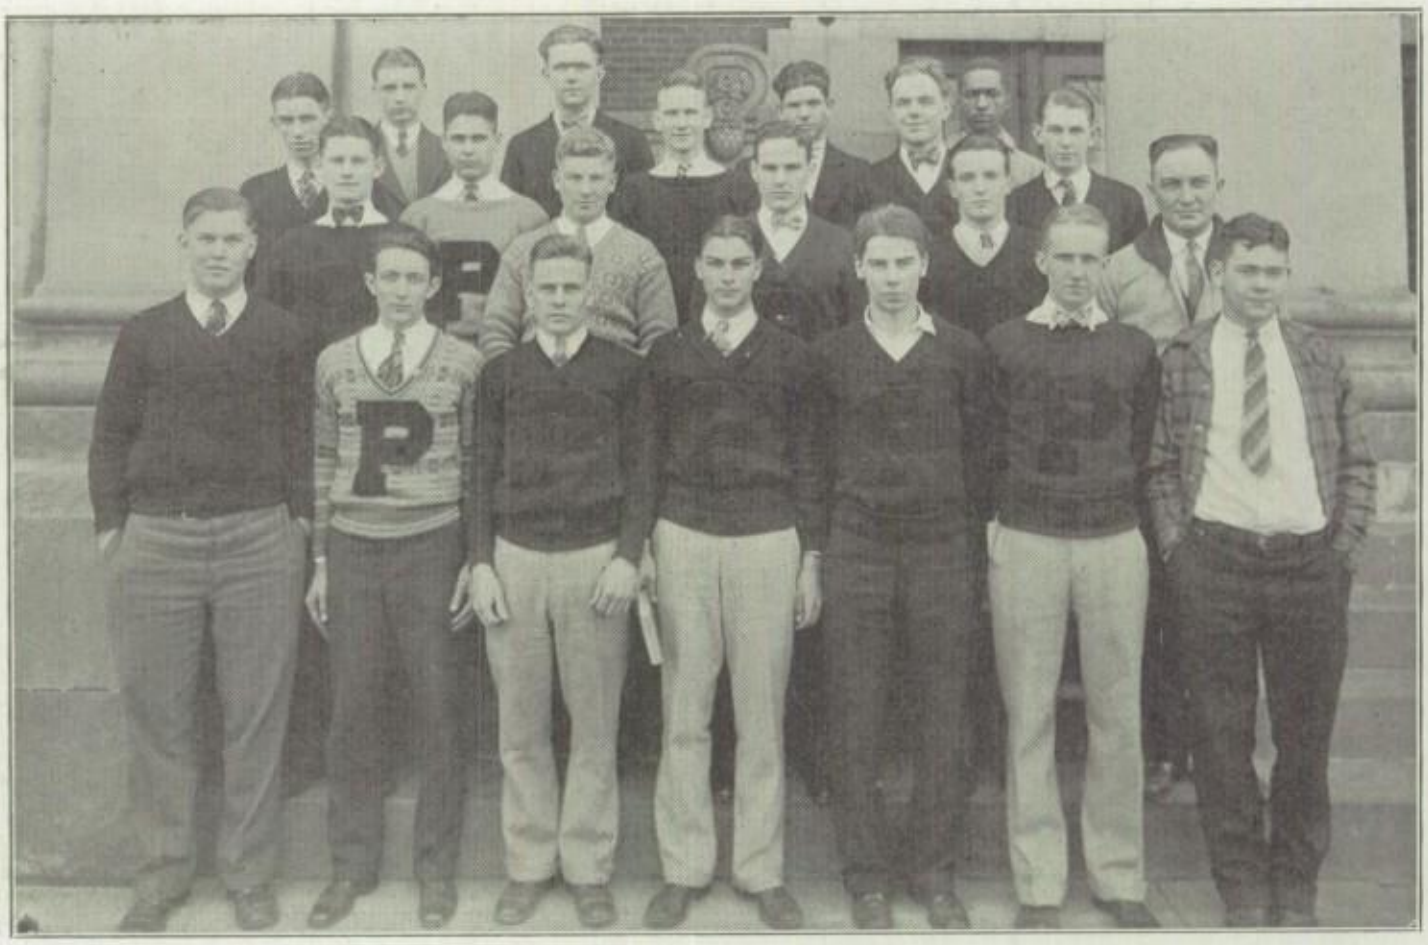
BAND

THE combined band of Peoria Central High School and Manual Training High School, under Mr. Irving Bradley's leadership, was organized this year with a definite object in view. It was made up from a large number of Freshmen, in fact 50% of the band were first year students. The band nevertheless has progressed rapidly and beyond being handicapped by lack of experience, lack of instruments, and insufficient time to practice, it is the best band ever assembled in the high schools of Peoria.

Their activities have been quite numerous this year, their first exhibition being at the Manual-Peoria High Thanksgiving football game. Next they appeared at the Vesper services at the Shrine Temple. They worked hard on their sectional concert numbers which they played at Springfield, a preliminary contest to state one to be held at Champaign. After they completed these engagements they prepared for a series of concerts to be given at the two high schools, and also at the various grade schools.

The following are the members of the band: Manual—Byron Ball, cornet; Lewin Elliott, Rowena Higgins, Jesse McDuff, Clarinet; Donald Fales, Joseph Kikton, Walter Swardenski, trumpet; Roberta Higgins, Mildred Hulting, Isaac Hunt, Victor Middleton, saxophone; Wilbur Lauterbach, Catherine Miller, Marjorie Smith, Albertus Weaver, drums; Clarence Meadows, baritone; Lester Smith, Gordon Swardenski, Howard Ward, trombone; Edwin Holland, sousaphone.

P. H. S.—Robert Bahr, Joseph Miller, Richard Sims, Walter Vincent, clarinet; Bruce Clark, tympany; Clarence Coons, piccolo; Kenneth Gadan, drums; Duane Hall, Jean Hercules, Willard Hersche, Henry Triebel, trumpet; Harry Hanson, Delbert Marshall, Thomas Roehnelt, Walter Waggoner, Sherman Webster, Robert Wilkinson, Clifford Partridge, saxaphones; Amert Headley, David Levitin, flute; Robert Larson, trombone.



LETTERMEN'S CLUB

THE Lettermen's Club was formed last February by Lorenz Towers, '27, Alvah Presley, '29, and Howard Landis, '27. The first group of officers elected were all seniors, so they resigned to give the juniors a chance to learn the work and carry the club over to the next year.

All boys who win athletic letters immediately become eligible for membership. The purpose of the club is to perpetuate the memory of our athletic heroes and create a spirit of friendliness among the members of the teams. The latter part has already been accomplished. To do the first, it is planned to designate some football game as the main attraction on "Lettermen's Day."

The first work the club did this year was to manage the sectional tournament. This was followed by their sponsoring a dance to raise money.

Coach "Doc" Herke, sponsor, has worked diligently to make the club successful.

DRAMATIC HONOR SOCIETY

FOR the purpose of honoring and giving due recognition to those students who give their time and talents in the plays and dramatic ventures of the school, the Dramatic Honor Society organized.

This is the first year of the society and, being a strictly honorary club organized for the sole purpose of recognizing the students' histrionic abilities, it has no officers.

Members are chosen at the time of the production by appointed judges who rate the players on their stage abilities and interpretation.

The members are:

Frank Tingwall
George Ashman
John Radley
James Van Cleave
Clarence Coons
Seymour Stowe
Walter Hendricks
Bernice Grabow
Rosalind Fisher
Harold Porter
Paul Dikeman
James Putnam
Margaret Rutherford
Ruth Johnson
Virginia Selby
Viola Mehl
Bernice Welty
Virginia Dee Lauer

MOVIE CREW OF 1926-1927

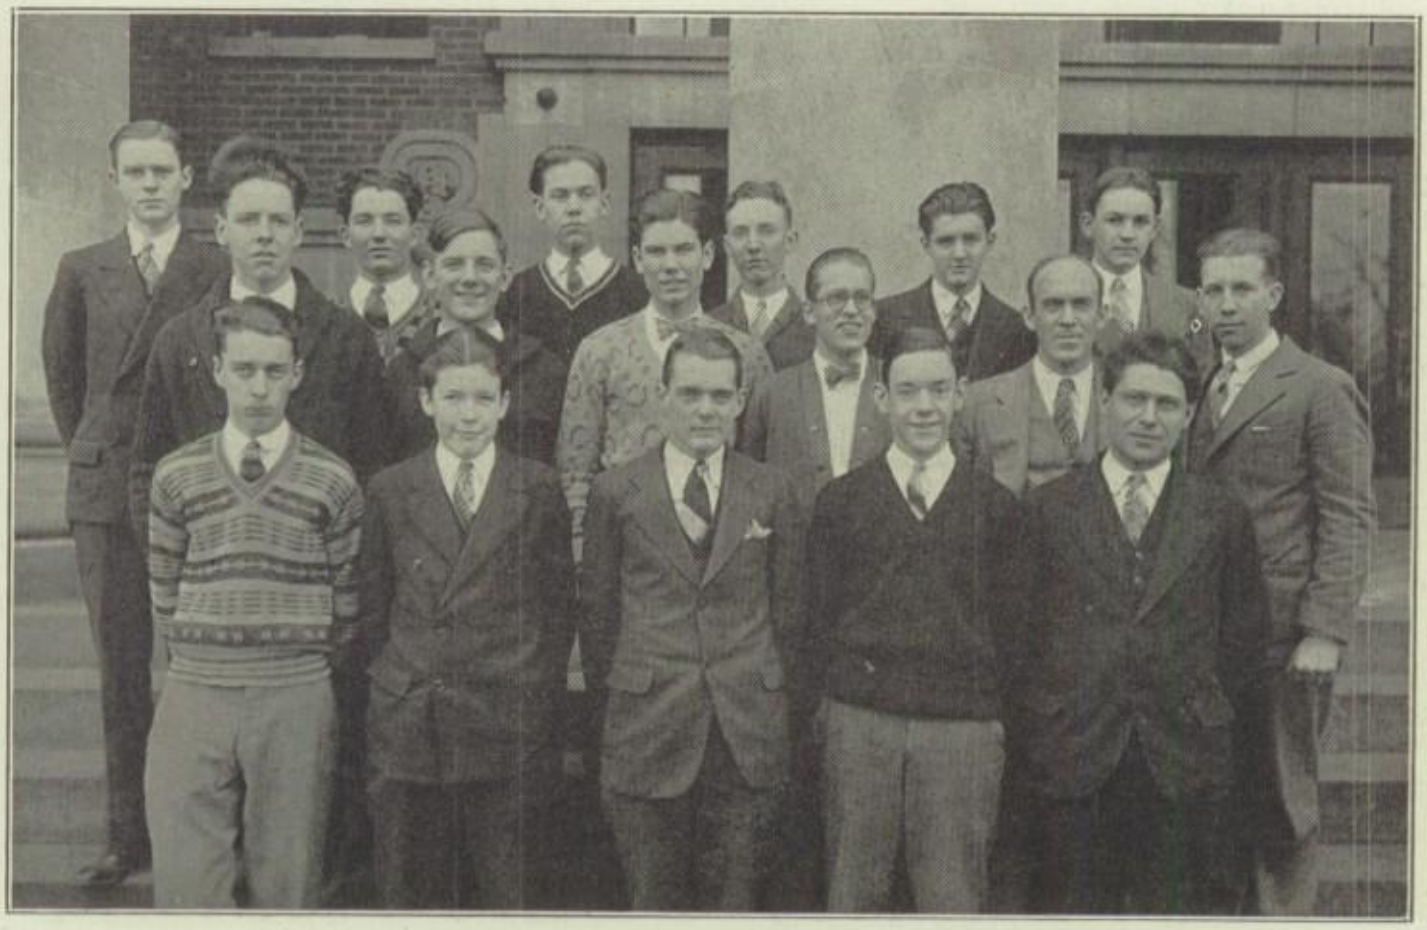
THE movie crew which has served this year is an experienced one for it is the same one that served last year. Don Reagan, Everett Hulsebus, and Reader Scott presided in the projection room and had control of the exhibition and case of the film. Albert Landers and Frank Pocklington were the advance sale agents and had charge of the issuing of tickets both in the advisory groups and at the door. Harris Waterman advertised the coming feature pictures with clever cartoons and posters.

The science movies this year were handled as part of the assembly programs, thereby eliminating the season ticket which was issued last year. This year's crew, under the able supervision of Mr. Epstein, who is faculty adviser of that department, have tried to offer interesting, outstanding pictures, such as "Les Miserables," "The Pony Express," and equally good photoplays.

The projection staff has had plenty of opportunity to display its ability this year, for the projection machine has given considerable trouble, even though it was thoroughly overhauled during the summer vacation.

The other departments have worked very smoothly and efficiently. The ticket men proved to be quite insistent when they accosted you with tickets in their hands. The advertising man has exacted many a laugh with his posters and cartoons.

So efficient has our crew become, that the local theatre operators' union have been afraid that our operators would make off with their jobs, a fact which is paying our crew a big compliment.



STAGE CREW

"LONG live the king; the king is dead!" That is the motto of the stage crew, for as soon as the final curtain has dropped, and before the complimentary remarks to the cast have died down, the crew has begun work on another great play to surpass anything that has ever been attempted before.

All this is made possible by the system of personal efficiency and fitness in effect "backstage."

Mr. Epstein, faculty stage manager, has successfully trained the crew so that no setting is too complicated for them to construct. It is largely through his interest in the work that such elaborately staged plays as "Seven Keys To Baldpate" and "Just Out of College" have been offered the school.

Curtis Armstrong, student manager, whose ability to solve difficult problems has proved invaluable.

Don Reagan and Reader Scott, electricians, showed surprising ability in producing realistic and effective lighting effects.

The carpenter, Quentin Miller, can be found on Saturdays and holidays building scenery to charm the most critical audience.

Harris Waterman, scenic artist, has created many beautiful scenes and backgrounds.

Elliott Tebow has proved to be an uplifting influence on the crew by his timely curtain raising. His spare time is spent splicing and coiling rope.

"Red" Watkins, stage comedian, keeps the crew in good spirits and at the same time does a lion's share of the work.

The newer members on the crew include Donald Duffy, William Shively, and Louis Vance.

JUSENDRA

Helen Butler	President
Walter Lewke	Vice-President
Dorothy Friedman	Secretary
Walter Berkman	Treasurer
Lawrence Hotchkiss	Assistant Treasurer
Charles Adams	Assistant Treasurer
Robert Conigisky	Business Manager
Carlisle Whitten	Business Manager
Miss Audra Newell	Faculty Adviser

UNDER the efficient leadership of Helen Butler, Jusendra has completed its most successful year since 1909 when it originated. This year the membership reached the total of almost four hundred Juniors and Seniors.

The club originated in 1909 under the name "Students' Club" which name it maintained until 1923, when the name Jusendra was chosen from the many submitted in the contest held to choose a new name.

Under the original constitution of Jusendra the objects of the club were: to develop unity and sociability among the students; to develop the abilities and the resourcefulness of the individual students; and to bring the school and parents into a closer relationship. However, under the reorganized constitution formed in 1917, the sole aim became to promote and foster the dramatic and histrionic interests of all the Juniors and Seniors who care to join the club. The promoting and fostering of these interests in Peoria High School has been done by means of the sponsoring of plays, lectures, speeches, readings, orations, and recitations. The personnel includes actors, debaters, declaimers, orators, elocutionists, managers, costumers, and designers.

Jusendra's gift to the school for the past year was a new psycho-rama curtain. Through the courtesy of Miss Boynton, the sewing classes made the curtain as part of their class work. The stage crew went to the trouble to hang it, and it is surely an appreciated addition to P. H. S. stage.

Another new addition in the school is the "Dramatic Honorary Society. Membership to this society is gained by doing outstanding work in any of the plays given in Peoria High School by the students. The members are chosen by a jury of several teachers who judge the acting in each play.

The Jusendra Club wishes to express its thanks for the work done by the faculty adviser, Mr. Epstein, to the stage crew under his direction, to Miss Newell, the club's adviser, and to those teachers who coached the various plays.

SENIOR CLASS

PLAY

JUST OUT OF COLLEGE

"JUST Out of College," by George Ade, was the play presented by the class of '27 on the evening of December 10, 1926. As the author intended, it was one big laugh from start to finish. Many in the audience said it was the best amateur performance ever seen on the Peoria High School stage. The play tells of a humorous fight between the Pickering Pickle Company and the Bingo Pickle Company, and it was full of laughable incidents.

Gus Shafer, as the young man "just out of college," was not only exceedingly funny, but also true to type. Maurice Schaffer was the modern business man who at last had to acknowledge that he was beaten by the young college graduate.

The setting for the second act, which took place in a Pure Food show, was a fine piece of work done by the stage crew under the direction of Mr. Epstein, the faculty adviser.

The play was prompted by Olive Pfander.

The senior play was truly a great success and was a credit to the coaches, Miss Daniels and Miss Cornelius, as well as to the class.

Cast: Gus Shafer, Edward Worthington Swinger; Maurice Schaffer, Septimus Pickering; Al. Landers, Prof. H. Dalrymple Bliss; Gwynne Duskey, "Slivers" Mason; Richard Simpson, Rufus; Robert Goldenstein, Ernest Bradford; Earl Miller, Joe Cappell, Lloyd Wilson, Ex-Collegians; Walter Berkman, Collector of Souvenirs; Don Morris, Ticket Seller; Russel Wharry, Train Caller; Edgar Walker, Subscription Book Agent; Oscar Lung, Solicitor of Insurance; Nathan Streitmatter, Delegate from the Union; Emma Strawn, N. W. Jones; Dorothy Reyburn, Genevieve Chizzle; Elvira Ewert, Luella Jenkins Pickering; Viola Mehl, Caroline Pickering; Zilla Stickley, Bernice McCormick; Ruth Waca, Aunt Julia Swinger; Helen Butler, News Stand Girl; Virginia Smith, Lonesome Lady Traveler; Josephine Cappell, Virginia Selby, Grace Brown, Bingo Girls; Food Show Attendants, Visitors, Railway Station Employees, Travelers, etc.; Grace Marshall, Harriet Gage, Alice Ruark, Helen Snider, Antoinette Hessling, Minnie Zimmerman, Harold Doubet, Caroline Crary, Janet Frankel, Frank Tingwall, Geraldine West, Mary Louise Andrews.

Committees: Costumes—Olga Meeds, Mary Somerville, Grace Marshall; Properties—Olive Pfander, Kermit Henkes, Katherine Jamison, Grace Brown, Phyllis Dargel, Olga Meeds; Publicity—Seymour Stowe, John Radley, Harris Waterman, Sylvia Foster; Tickets—William Miles, George Parker, Frank Pocklington, Freda Messer, Anna Gimming: Programs—Fred Crawshaw, Robert Conigisky, William Sanford, Virginia Edes. Class pennant—Iola Claypool, Ruth Johnson, Ruth Waca, Marjorie Lucas, Edna Johnson, Edith Shaw, Helen Willard, Josephine Ernst.

CREST

SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE

"SEVEN Keys to Baldpate," a melodramatic farce written by George M. Cohan, was as full of humor and mystery as any play could be. Thrills and laughs in large quantities were offered the audience in this super production. Every time one of the seven keys were fitted in the lock of the door to the inn, a pin could have been heard to drop. When Peters the hermit entered the office many were the shrieks and yells heard from the audience. His costume and the lighting of the stage made the ghostly effect very real.

The scene of the play was the office of Baldpate Inn. The setting for this scene was the best ever displayed on a high school stage. The staircase showed some real skill in carpentry. The stage crew comes in for a large amount of credit for their work in building it. The lighting of the stage made the whole effect perfect.

Walter Hendricks as a writer of lurid melodrama acted his part in a very easy manner that was altogether pleasing to the spectator. Frank Tingwall as the hermit received a laugh every time he moved. In fact there was not a single character that did not take his or her part well.

Our famous dramatic coaches, Miss Cornelius and Miss Daniels, are largely responsible for the success of this truly great play.

CAST

The Owner of Baldpate	Robert Wead

EVENING DRESS INDISPENSABLE

THIS was the first afternoon production given by Jusendra. This one-act play typifies a girl who did not crave the social life that her standing in society entitled her to.

Cast: Albert Landers, Geoffrey Chandler; Sara Hodes, Alice Waybury; Viola Mehl, Shiela; Walter Hendricks, George Connaught; Sylvia Thompson, the Maid.

FINDERS KEEPERS

THE scene of this modern morality play is laid in a typical modern American city. The characters are just ordinary everyday sort of people. The setting was the usual living room scene. Olive Pfander's crying scenes were the outstanding feature of the play, and were very well done. This play differed from most of the others in that it had a moral. It is an example of "honesty is the best policy," with a humorous twist to it.

Cast: Natalie Coultas, Mrs. Aldrid; Clarence Coons, Mr. Aldrid; Olive Pfander, Mrs. Hampton.

WHY THE CHIMES RANG

"WHY the Chimes Rang" brought out the Christmas idea of giving by showing that the value of the gift is obtained from spirit in which it is given.

Cast: Rhody Fisher, old lady; Oliver Mackley, Steen; Seymour Stowe, Holger; Howard Landis, Bartel; John Radley, Priest; Esther Becsey, Angel; Mina Ullman, Beautiful Woman; George Ashman, Old Man; Monroe Paradise, Rich Man; Helen Sommer, Peasant Girl; Harold Evans, Courtier; Dorothy Birket, Young Woman; Margaret Mathis, Lovely Girl; Elliott Tebow, King; Bernice Welty, Old Woman.

THE WONDER HAT

"THE Wonder Hat" is a fantasy of exceptional interest. It concerns a young man who tries to escape falling in love, but finds it is impossible.

Cast: Harold Porter, Harlequin; Casey Ireland, Pierrot; Mary Easton, Margot; Frank Tingwall, Puchinello; Verna Hammel, Columbine.

WILL O' THE WISP

"WILL O' the Wisp" is a weird, fantastic sort of play, and this impression was furthered by the well-chosen characters and the setting. Margaret Shepherdson's voice was just the one for the part of the old country woman. Katherine Hoagland took the part of the poor waif. In the scene in which she becomes the Will O' the Wisp she held the intense interest of the audience. The poet's wife, Phyllis Dargel, was very condescending, and altogether aristocratic, as the part demanded. Virginia Lauer did an excellent piece of work in her characterization of the maid. The play was an acknowledged success.

THE SEQUEL

"THE Sequel," by Percival Wilde, was a comedy concerning the forced love affairs of Jack Horrocks, Donald Reagan. During the first evening of the engagement Millie Hollister, Virginia Selby, discovered that Jack had been forced into it by his father, head of Horrocks, Inc., played by Elliott Tebow. The part of the super-butler was taken by Max Fuller. The play was coached by Miss Newell. The audience showed their appreciation of the play by their long and hearty clapping at the final curtain.

CHERCHEZ LA FEMME

THE French Club of Peoria High presented two plays on the afternoon of February 16. The first, "Cherchez la Femme," was a two-act comedy farce with clever and amusing situations. It was written and coached by Miss Bunch.

Cast: Clarence Coons, Hippolyte Duval; Eleanor Jack, Francoise Courcelles; Marjorie Lucas, Madame Courcelles; Edna Reese, Jeanne; Robert Wead, Richard Andre; John Radley, Hippolyte de Farge; Katherine Jamison, Louise Lemafre; Emma Strawn, Madame Chardin; Hippolyte de Farge Duval, par lui-meme.

AU RAT MORT

THE second play, "Au Rat Mort," coached by Miss Buswell, portrayed a scene in a Paris cafe. The American tourists, the native Parisiennes, and the musical entertainments gave a very realistic effect. The cast:

Cast: Katherine Altorfer, Ethel Skeen, Alma Ludwig, Lillian Thayer, Mr. Burns, Edwin Carey, Gwynne Duskey, David Levitin, Kenneth Brockert, James Wahlfeld, Dorothy Birket, Josephine Murray, Phyllis Starry, Marcella Meyer, Elizabeth Meyer, Dorothy Martin, Dorothy Miller, Harold Comstock, Robert Bartholomew, Charles Adams, Russel Wharry, Dorothy Moeller, Helen Thompson, Elizabeth Prochazka, Ruth Fuller, Eleanor Deemy, Martha Lewis, Mary B. Flannigan, Jayne Rodenhouser, Phyllis Starry, Albert Schradzki, Leo Propp, Martha Schimpff, Bernadine McKeel.

THE ROMANCERS

FOR the last presentation of the year Jusendra gave as the first play on the program "The Romancers," a French tale written by Edmund Rostend, and translated into the English by Mary Hendee. Percinet, James Putnam and Sylvette, Virginia Selby, as the two young lovers, plot against their respective fathers to marry each other. Unknown to them, the fathers Bergamin, Harold Porter and Pasquinot, Clarence Coons, plot to get them married.

Cast: Sylvette, Virginia Selby; Percinet, James Putnam; Bergamin, Harold Porter; Pasquinot, Clarence Coons; Straforel, John Radley.

THE BUG

THE second play on the program was an all-student production. "The Bug" was written by Margaret Shepherdson, '28, and was coached by Helen Butler, '27. It is a clever comedy introducing Professor William Hartley of Cooper college, as a harmless old fellow rather gone on poetry. He endeavors to write a masterpiece that shall live through the ages. "The Bug" is the masterpiece. Much credit is due Gwynne Duskey whotook his part two hours before the play was given.

Cast: Marion Warner, Harriet Gage; Professor Warner, Russell Wharry; Professor Hartley, Fred Hohn; Philip Anderson, Gwynne Duskey.

AS YOU LIKE IT

THE English Club deserves commendation for their presentation of a cutting from "As You Like It." It was exceptionally well given considering the fact that high school students were the characters. The male parts were portrayed very well. Gwynne Dusky was an artist in his characterization of Orlando. His enunciation was distinct and easily understood. Lucille Jackson did a creditable piece of work in her conception of Rosalind. The play was given in five acts and was coached by Miss Daniels.

CAST

Prologue	Oliver Mackley
Orlando	Gwynne Dusky
Adam	Perry McComas
Oliver	Charles Harrison
Dennis	Bob Perry
Charles	Joe Hornbacker
Duke Frederick	George Ashman
First Lord	Carl Luthy
Second Lord	Wheeler Tracy

Rosalind	Lucille Jackson
Celia	Ruth Johnson
Duke Senior	Harold Porter
Jaques	Walter Berkman
Amiens	Edgar Rainey
Jaques de Boys	Theodore Watkins

SAILOR MAIDS

"SAILOR Maids" was presented by the Music Club as its annual operetta. It was a comedy in which Edward, Walter Lewke, and Frances Marie, Annabel Straesser, the main characters, become mixed in their love affairs through a case of mistaken identity. Edward falls in love with Jeanette Spencer, Martha Schimpff a friend of Frances Marie, and Frances Marie loves the cook. The play comes to a close with everyone arranged in his proper character, but the love affairs remain as they are. In the first act the chorus dressed in blue and white with Frances Marie in pink and white made a very pretty scene. The lawn party in the second act was very realistic.

CAST

Cyrus Templeton, the Lighthouse Keeper	Lewis Bartley
Frances Marie, his daughter	Annabel Straesser
Jeanette Spencer, friend of Frances Marie	Martha Schimpff
Olga, the Swedish housekeeper	Jayne Rodenhouser

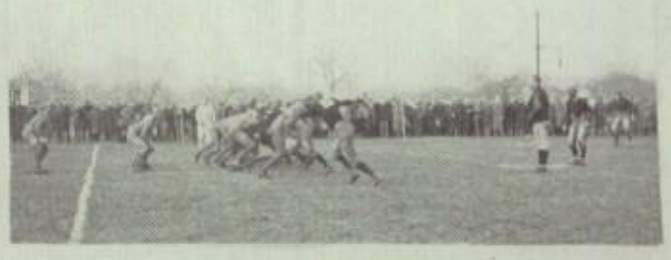
ATHLETICS

Athletic Snaps



In Action!

SALEN HERKE

Director of Athletics and Physical Training

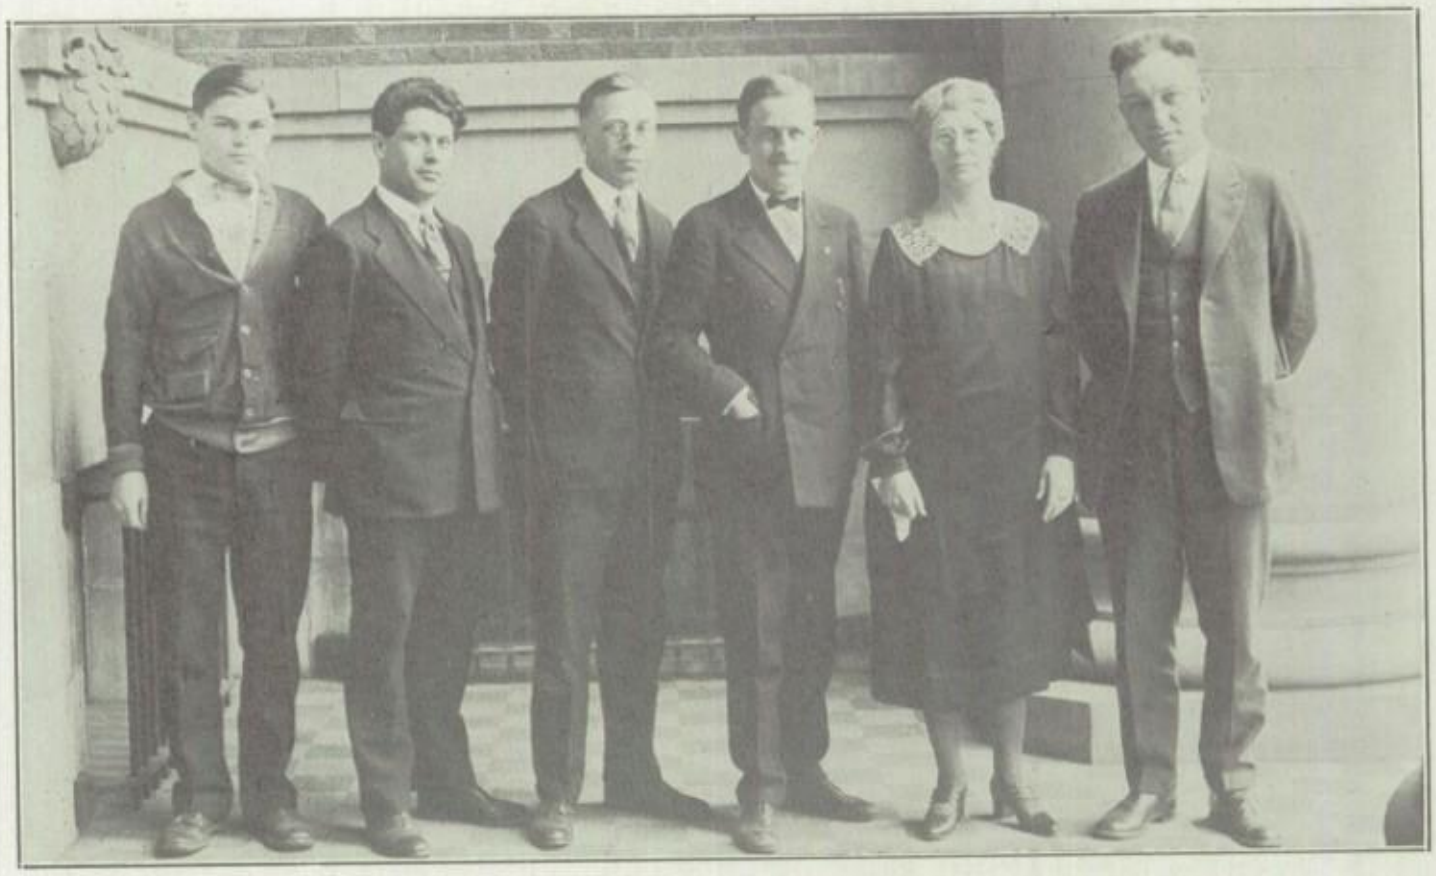
OUR COACH

THE difference in men is in their mental attitudes. Great men like to do great things; failures do not care. A man must have a goal, an ideal, before any degree of success whatever can be attained.

Salen Herke has such an ideal in a phrase which sums up his success as a coach, besides giving us an insight into his philosophy of life: "If you do what is right you can't lose."

Mr. Herke, it must be a real pleasure to teach this code of yours to young men, to instill in them grit enough to keep it. We would do well to establish it in our own minds and carry it into future life.

For eleven years, "Doc," you have served Peoria High honors and glory; and now we doff our hats to you, our coach supreme. We cannot return all the praise due you, but we can say that, from the deep depths of our innermost selves we thank you.



ATHLETIC BOARD

WILLIAM HARDIN . . . . . President
WILLIAM COOLEY . . . . . Vice-President
GEORGE SCRIPPS . . . Sophomore Representative
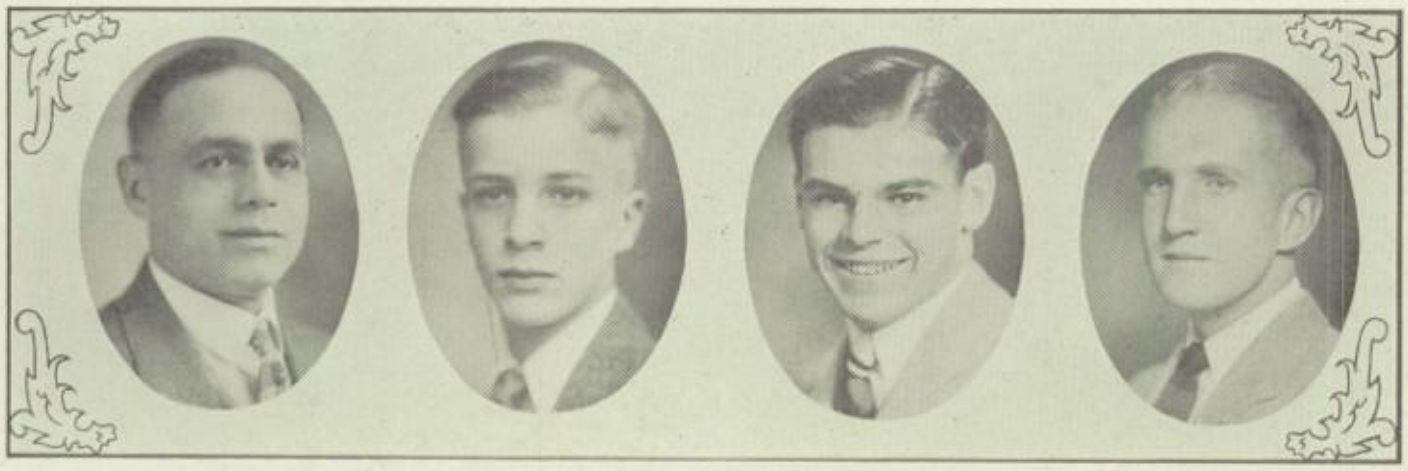
MR. CROMWELL, MRS. WISMAN, Secretary; MR. HERKE, Coach; MR. COLE, MR. PARKHILL, and MR. MUIRHEAD, —Faculty Members.

THE Athletic Board, which is composed of the above mentioned, is an important organization. Through it our games are arranged and the schedules fixed. All equipment is paid for by the funds which it handles. Before any bill of cost can be taken care of the members of this organization must audit and pass a resolution permitting it.

Upon these people depends a great deal the success of our athletic activities for the year;and, since they have carried on their part of the work well, we have had a good one annually both financially and otherwise.



MANAGERS

William Hardin	Student Manager
William Cooley	Junior Manager
George Scripps	Sophomore Manager
Mr. Damon (Faculty) . .	Tournament Manager

ONE of the biggest jobs in school is the handling of our athletic activities and to the managers fall this work. They handle all the advertising and ticket selling for the games. When the contests are here the managers must see that equipment and playing space are in order, ready for use. When the team is out of town it is their duty, besides caring for equipment, to find good lodging and board also. The student manager is the one usually to go on trips with the squad.

Generally the managers are chosen in their Sophomore year, to work up to student manager position. Bill Hardin, this year's chief of managers, has served for four years and received his letter at the last football banquet. At this time the managership ends. He has taken care of his job very completely and satisfactorily. Mr. Cole represented the faculty in the selling of tickets.

WILLIAM (BILL) CONWAY

BILL is the official orator and physician of Peoria High. He came to this school in the same year as Herke and has performed his duties with commendable faithfulness and cheerfulness. His willingness to care for the injuries of others, his speeches at the athletic assemblies, and the work he does for our coach make him an important factor in our victories. Between the soap-box and the locker room Bill has won a host of friends.

OUR CHEER LEADERS

Jack Elliott	Junior	Ralph Lewis	Freshman
Delbert Marshall	Sophomore	Josephine Cappel	Senior
Jack Harris	Freshman	Virginia Selby	Senior
		Albert Landers	Senior

COOPERATION, that's the word that made this year a "howling" success so far as the cheerleaders are concerned. Never before have we had so many rooters and never before so many men to direct them. The work of Jack Elliott, Al Landers, and Delbert Marshall stands out as an inspiration to our future exponents of yell.

Carrying the brunt of the burden these three showed enough spirit and enough concurrent effort to bring their bit of school work to the exact front line of one of the most successful years Peoria High has ever experienced.

Something new in the attempt of womanhood to take masculine positions is shown in our having with us two senior girls as cheerleaders. They were most successful in their efforts, producing many earthquaking responses.

The Freshmen, who were the understudies of the more experienced, were wonders in the amount of aid they proved themselves capable of rendering.

The next opening of the school doors will bring a new year; we who depart wish with sincerity all the joys we have had, but at any cost never let that ol' "U—RAH" die out.

OUR CAPTAINS

WE honor here the men who have just completed terms as captains of our teams. The time, energy, and thought so faithfully given, we feel, is deserving of such recognition. They were chosen because of their ability and character, two qualities necessary to gain the confidence and cooperation of their fellow men.

Lorenz Tower

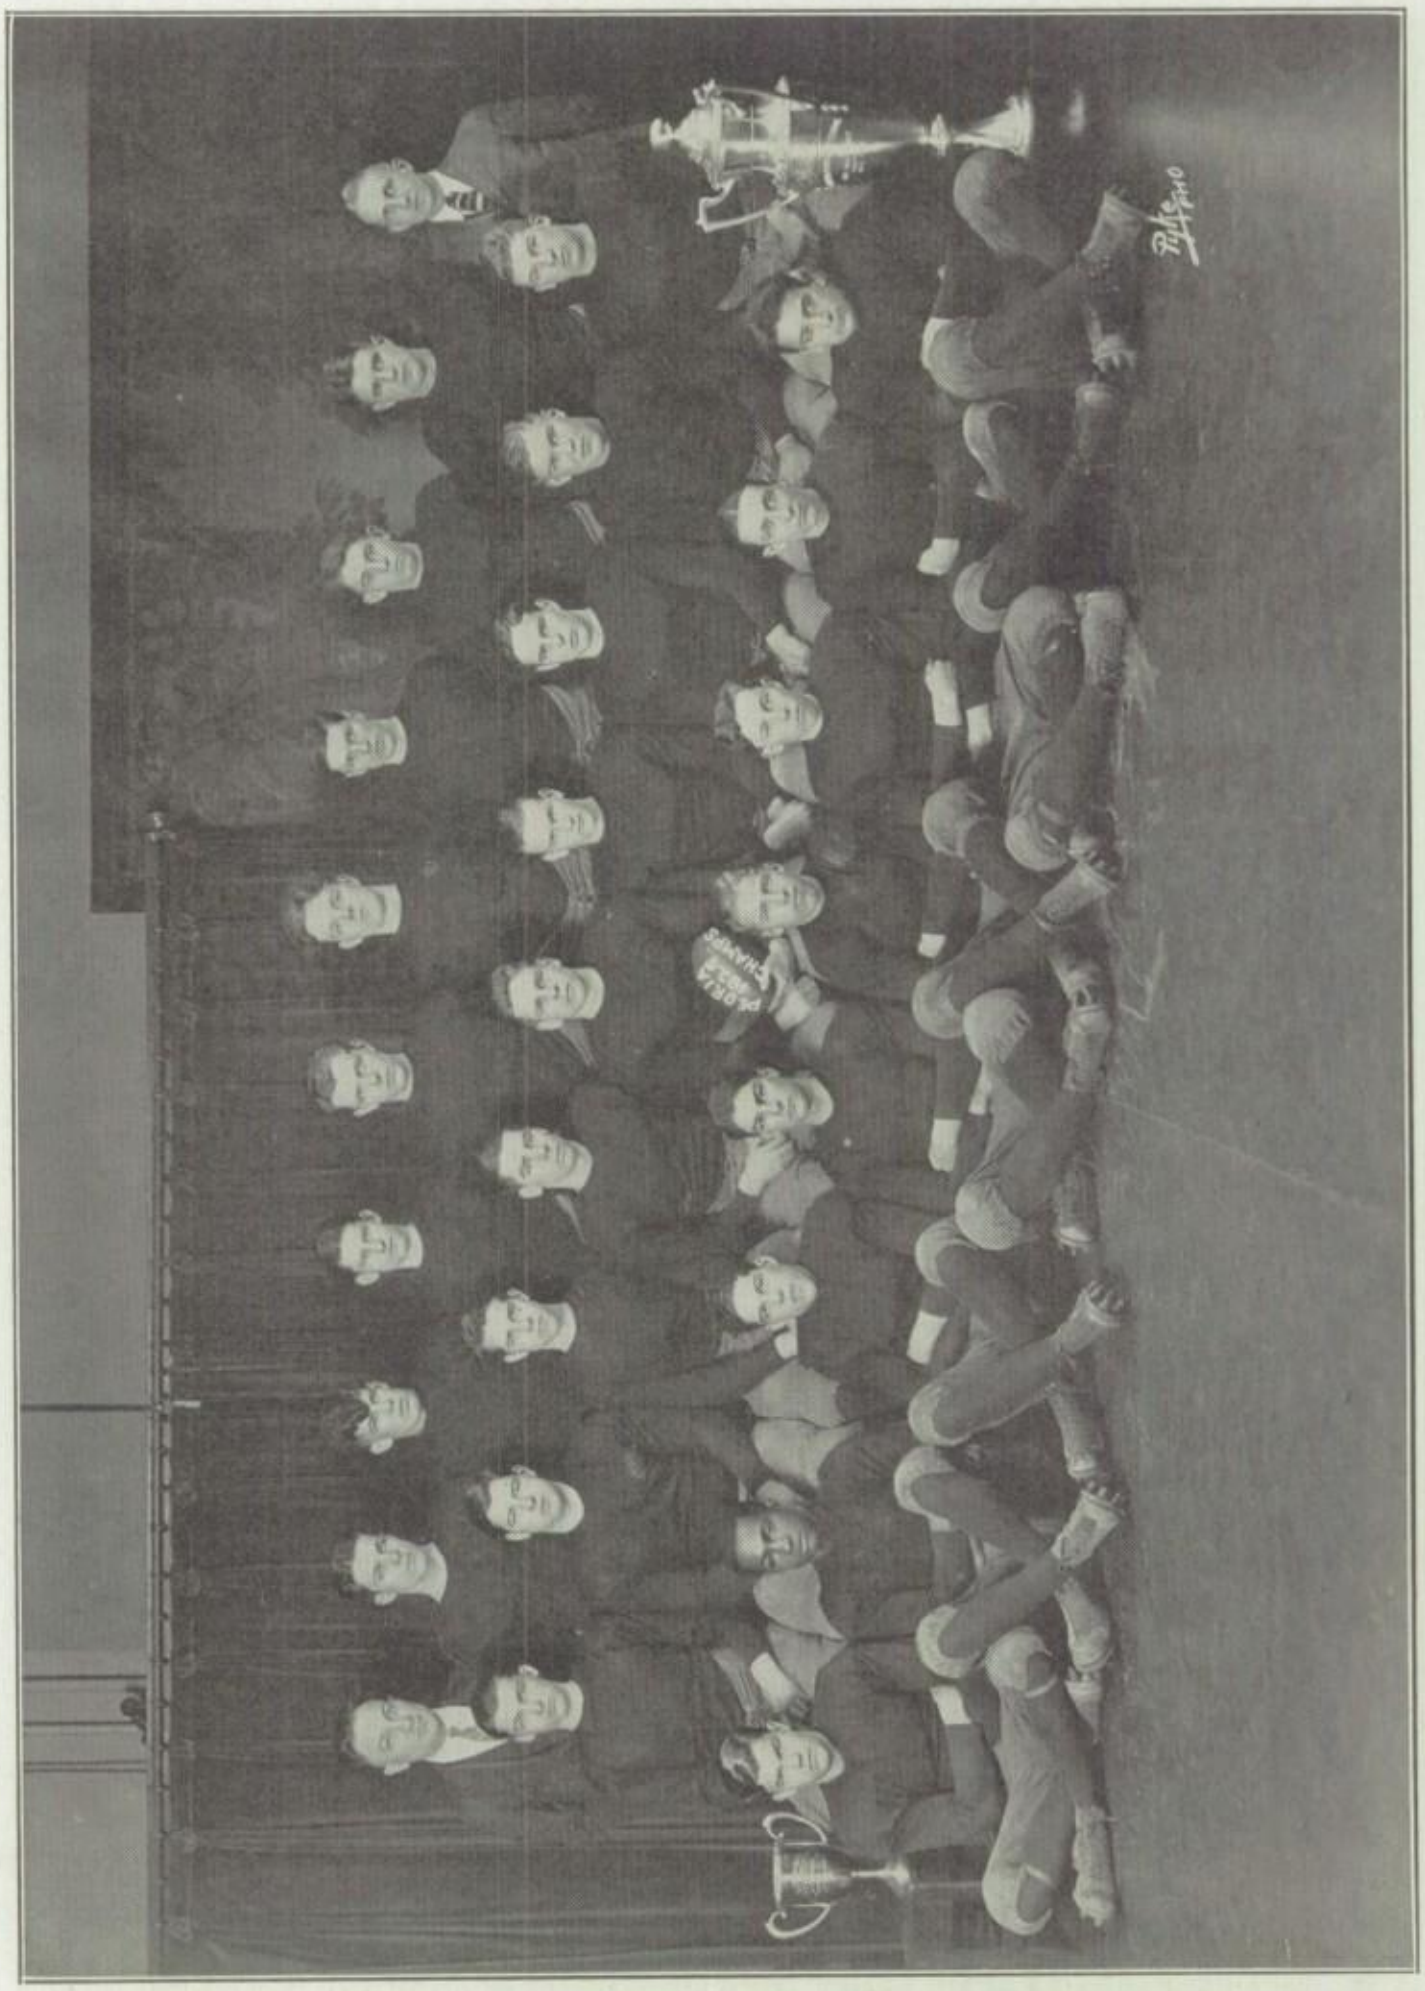
As we close this last chapter of our high school careers we take with us one of the best athletes that Peoria High has ever had. He captained the Maroon and Black through last year's baseball season and the football season the following Fall. His success in those positions is evidenced by the games won against many handicaps.

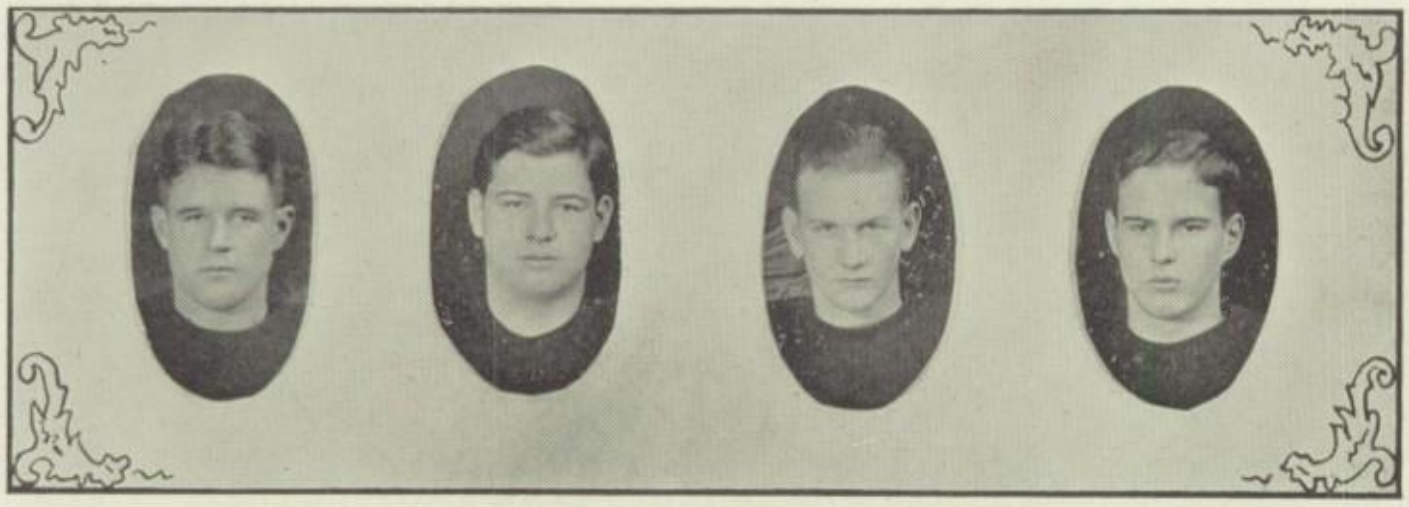
Arthur Verner

Following in his brother's footsteps, "Art" is fast developing into a splendid player. As leader of our 1927 basketball team he has shown superb generalship. In so exciting a game as basketball it is necessary to have such a man as he to keep up the fighting morale of the team. He no doubt will play an important part in the developing of our next round of winners.

Richard Moody

This man was at the head of our track warriors during the 1926 period. With all the tricks of the cinder path that are packed away in his athletic mind he taught the boys how to win. None but those who saw the great number of cups and pennants won by the team can fully appreciate the real glory he and his followers have brought to Peoria High.





LETTER MEN

MARSHALL ALLEN—tackle:

When a man steps in and takes two letters, in as many years, he has performed quite a feat. Marsh has two more years, and we hope that he may continue to serve as faithfully.

WILBUR BOUTON—tackle:

Always fighting hard, he succeeded in obtaining his second emblem of recognition. You played well "Wib," keep it up in life.

ARTHUR VERNER—halfback:

"Art" is a player of exceptional ability and should make some college a valuable athlete. We shall always remember his plunging in the last Manual game. He has one more year with us.

ROBERT GREENE—end:

"Snag that pass, 'Bobby'," was a yell that usually ended in several yards gain by this boy's lengthy reach. He not only has worked hard on the field, but also in studies, for his grades show it.

FOOTBALL RESULTS

P. H. S.	7	Bloomington	0	P. H. S.	6	Moline	12
P. H. S.	0	Champaign	6	P. H. S.	14	Spalding	0

JOSEPH GOLDEN—fullback:

"Personality-plus" Joe carried a wicked wallop in each side of his head when he hit the line this year. He took our famous "Redhead's" place quite well.

EDWARD LEWKE—tackle:

"Ed", though not playing as a regular, was persistent in his efforts and won his letter this year. He has the makings of a real athlete if he will only keep it up.

HOWARD LANDIS—guard:

This lad is the "smilingest" fellow on the team. He played a great game both defensively and offensively. We cannot give him too much credit.

WALTER LEWKE—tackle:

We have here the other half of the Lewke twins. He was not to be outdone by his brother so he stepped out and grabbed similar recognition.

AUSTIN—there

To open the season, Peoria High dropped a clean but hard fought game to Austin High of Chicago. After a fumble by the Herkemen, Sohn, brilliant right half of the "up-river aggregation," drop-kicked the ball over the bar for the winning points.

BLOOMINGTON—here

The week preceding this game, football practice was hindered by heavy rains, but Peoria High's gridders were still good enough to "put over" a 7 to 0 win on Bloomington. The counter came after a blockaded punt by the face of John Barnes, a retrieve by Bob Greene, and a point after touchdown by Captain Lorenz Tower.

JOHN BARNES—center:

Handicapped by lack of experience, he could not play as often as he wished. However, "Jawn" will have an opportunity to show his wares next year.

WILLIAM ROSS—fullback:

We don't know whether that summer trip has anything to do with it or not, but anyway, "Bill" carried the pigskin to a berth on the squad this year. He made some nice runs for Ol' Central.

JOHN GIMMING—center:

To take Geddes' place is no easy matter, for that man certainly knew football. Yet Gimming did it with a readiness which bids fair to make him another great center.

CHARLES BAUMFLECK—halfback:

Possessed with some of the characteristic speed of the Baumfleck family he assumed some of the responsibility of a "back." If he runs as fast next year, we are sure that he will run into some very favorable honors.

CHAMPAIGN—here

The superiority of Champaign's line made our defeat almost inevitable. They were able to stop our advances at the line, while we had to rely a great deal on our backfield men to stop them. To hold such a team to a 6 to 0 score speaks well for the ability of the Maroons.

RUSSEL PAGE—end:

Russ completed his second round of duties with the regulars this year. He stopped many an enemy's advance with a timely tackle.

RAYMOND BUCK—halfback:

Teaming with Verner he had to step right along; he not only did that, but he played like a learned veteran. We may consider ourselves fortunate in having him with us again next year.

ALVAH PRESLEY—tackle:

Down in the locker room Presley once said that he wasn't going to sit on the second string bench any longer. We are to believe it because he has been going great guns in all sports.

WILBUR GOUVEIA—halfback:

Coming here from Baltimore this lad displayed enough color to take honors as a varsity man. He flashed down the carpet for many a healthy gain. Thanks for the help, "Wib."

JACKSONVILLE—there

In a drizzling rain the Peoria High's grid warriors hung up another Big 12 conference win. Passes from Tower to Greene played an important part in handing the southerners a 34 to 7 spanking.

CREST

SPRINGFIELD—here

The Capitol City pigskin luggers invaded Peoria's territory and retreated homeward carrying with them scars of a hard-fought game. The superiority of the Herkemen in team play and plunging was a little more than they could handle.

MOLINE—there

Two passes from the hands of Captain Tower tied the count 6 all in the third quarter of the game; but the northern plowboys retaliated in similar fashion in the last period to win the contest. All Moline was in the highest spirits because it was their first win over the Maroons since 1923.

SPALDING—here

The Armistice Day fight proved to be another exciting victory. The Purple team had some clever plays but none proved clever enough to push over a score. If the sun had had eyes that day it would have seen some nice football on the part of Peoria, especially on the part of Buck and Verner.

MANUAL—here

In this the most exciting game of the year Verner, Manual, and a brilliant Peoria High comeback were the outstanding features. Two intercepted passes gave Manual its twelve points, almost enough to win the game. However, after the half time period the bluffmen returned with fight in their hearts and twice rushed the Orange back to the posts to tie the count. The peculiar part of the duel was that any one of the four "points-after-touchdown" would have won the fracas.

LETTER MEN

GEORGE SOPER—forward:

Only a Sophomore but he played like a demon. His uncanny eye for the basket combined with his clever floor play won for him a place on the first All-State Five. To win such honors in his second year at high school certainly shows that he has unusual ability. His future holds, no doubt, greater laurels.

JOHN GIMMING—guard:

Also a choice for the first All-State team proves the completeness with which "Jawn" stopped the enemy's attack. His skill in obtaining the ball off the backboard gave his mates fast returns which in turn won most of our ball games.

LORENZ TOWER—guard:

One of the big questions of the year is how such a short man can handle such tall forwards. Playing his last game with the squad, "Lefty" put everything that his size and physical build could put into the game and the result was a wham of a game played with a wham of a team.

ROBERT GREENE—forward:

Bob's work under the basket and on the floor was so valuable that his misfortune suffered at Champaign proved most disastrous to Peoria's chances for a win. This is his last, too, but we feel that his athletic career will always stay with us in memory.

BASKETBALL RESULTS

The records of our "point a minute" team rate it as the greatest of all in the history of the school. The feats of the teams of 1919, 1920, 1921, are mere shadows in comparison to the performances of these boys of 1926-1927.

Every time they entered a game the result seemed already checked up as a victory, in fact, they played a total of 1072 minutes and scored 1145 points to their opponents' 573, for an average of a 35 to 17 score per game.

RAYMOND BUCK—

It takes good men to fill the shoes of the regulars when they are tired, so a great deal of honor must be given our substitutes. Ray is a splendid athlete and was an efficient aid to Coach Herke.

MAURICE SCHAFFER—guard:

Morris wanted his letter in basketball this year and he just stepped out into the big show often enough to get it. To him we take off our hats for when a man wants something and does his work so thoroughly that he gets it he deserves credit. Nice going boy, we'll see you at college.

ROBERT BARTHOLOMEW—forward:

Slippery, with the ability to make long shots as easily as snappy "closeups," the young "Red" played in enough games to win a much deserved letter. In doing so he pressed hard several veteran players.

During the season they breezed through 22 straight victories before tasting defeat. When the blow fell it was, unfortunately for us, in the State tournament at Champaign. Even here the opposition was bowled over easily until the last game when everything seemed to happen at once. Since this is the first time that a P. H. S. team has entered the state finals in years our "basketeers" may feel a great deal of pride in their accomplishment.

Of this mighty squad three will be lost through graduation: Lorenz Tower, Robert Greene, and Maurice Schaffer. Besides the letter men on the team there were James Garrison, Alvah Presley, Marvin Jones, and James Greene.

To further our brief review, it would be good to put down in outline form some of the outstanding facts.

PEORIA High School enjoyed a most successful 1926 baseball season, having won eight out of the nine games played. Since the revival of the sport here in the year 1918, we have won for the seventh time the City Championship.

The pitching of Captain Lorenz Tower was the outstanding feature of the season. He shut out two of the opposing teams, and in a game against Spalding he struck out twenty-four batters.

Our versatile John Gimming also pitched a shut out game against Farmington. Both of these boys are to be back this year to perform their duties on the diamond.

SWIMMING TEAM RESULTS

WITHOUT much time to train and on comparatively short notice, Peoria High was able to send a competer to Danville. Tank performers from Danville, Decatur, Champaign, Urbana and Peoria High, vied for the honors of the meet. Captain Fred Block was the highest point getter from P. H. S., taking second in the 40 and 100-yard free style events respectively. Al. Hoppin collected a third in fancy diving.

We didn't get much, but it has shown the great possibilities that are in this sport for next year. Come on now Peoria, we have started; now you get behind us and push. Give us more candidates, and more meets, and we'll put you on the aquatic map among the stars.

MEMBERS OF THE TEAM:

Fred Block, Captain	40 and 100-yard free style.
Al. Hoppin	Fancy diving.
Wilbur Eichorn	120-yard relay team and free style relay team.

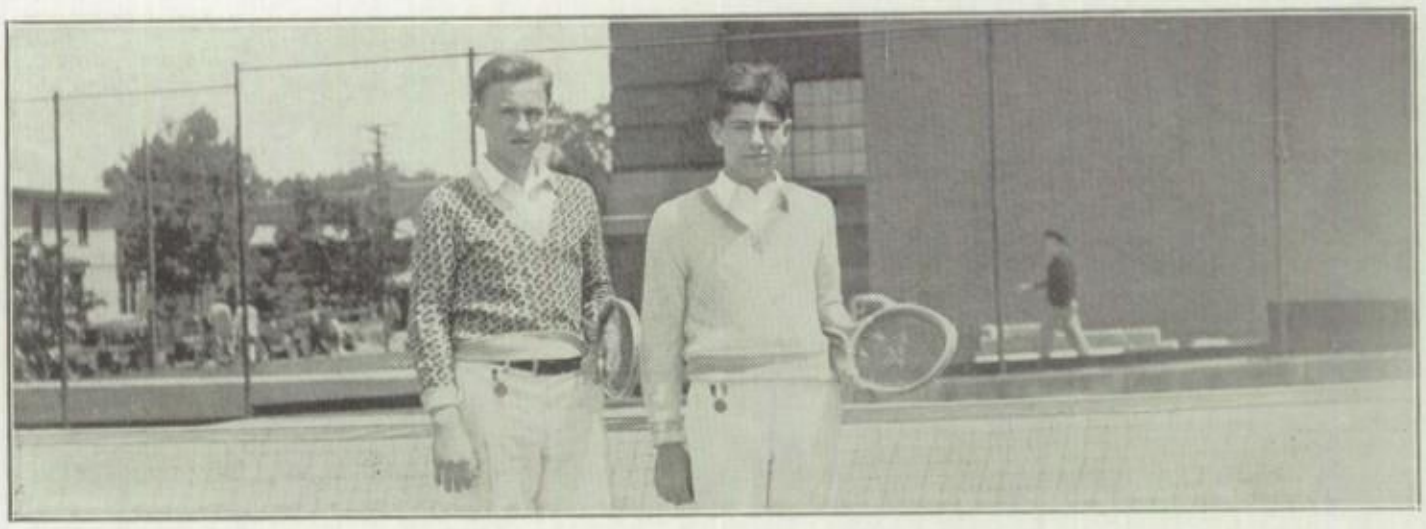
GOLF TOURNAMENT

THE first real golf team for two years to represent Peoria Central was organized during the school year of '26 and '27 by Jack Elliott, Lawrence Hotchkiss, and Charles Adams. A school tournament was played, and up to the date of writing, Ted Page, Fred Sund, and Lawrence Hotchkiss are trying for the championship of the school.

The golf team, Sund, Hotchkiss, Elliott, Adams, Miles, and Page, entered in the Big 12 Tournament at Decatur, Illinois, and placed second out of the ten schools. Champaign won the tournament, beating Central out by 3 points. Manual placed third.

Peoria Central will send a team to the state finals to be played at Champaign May 20 and 21. Probably Central will compete with Manual, and one other school in a dual meet to be held late in the month of May.



Tennis Team

HORSESHOE TOURNAMENT

"BARNYARD GOLF" was introduced into P. H. S. last year for the first time as a school activity. Courts were laid out in the tennis court at the south of the building which was too rough for tennis. A doubles tournament was held, and was won by Miss La Dew's Group. The singles tournament was won by Mr. Troth's Group.

This year both doubles and singles tournaments were played. Theodore Saal and Lorenz Tower won the doubles tournament for Mr. Troth's group. The singles had not been played off yet but it is thought that Franklin Banta of Miss La Dew's Group or Theodore Saal will win. From the winners of these tournaments a team will be chosen to represent the school.

CLASS BASKETBALL RESULTS

FOR the third consecutive time the class of '27 emerged victorious from the annual fracas held on the hardwoods in the boys' gym. Pushing over the Sophs in a splendid 25 to 19 battle they brought a fitting climax to their high school careers and to the class whom they represented. Those who played were Garrison, Howard, Golden, Ross, and Landis. Garrison, who was the leading scorer of the season, played his usual brand of game to collect 13 markers.

Beside winning games the Seniors were able to put two men on the inter-class All-Stars, Garrison and Landis. Landis who was captain of his own team was also made captain of the All-Stars.

CLASS BASEBALL RESULTS

TO play ball we must have good weather and for some reason or other Ol' Sol couldn't shine often enough to permit the usual quota of games. Those that were played were exciting enough, but the excitement might have been greater had there been more of them. All through the contests the Seniors were undefeated, their batting, fielding, and pitching being too much for the other teams.

NATIONAL TRACK CHAMPIONS, 1926

Two national championships and first place make up Peoria's share of victories won at the Fourth Annual Marquette University national high school relay carnival, held May 7, 1926, at Milwaukee.

In each of these three events, the half mile relay, sprint medley relay, and mile relay, Peoria High runners established new records.

Dick Moody staged the greatest finish of the day, when he passed the runners of two schools, and flashed across the finish line, breaking the mile relay record. The Peoria quintet took just three minutes and thirty-five seconds to negotiate the distance. The boys who ran on this team were: C. Moody, V. Baumfleck, G. Shafer, and R. Moody.

In the 880-yard relay the boys won their first National championship, while setting a new national record for this event. C. Shaver, C. Moody, G. Shafer, and R. Moody ran in this race.

Central's other national title came when they won the sprint medley relay by defeating Washington and West Division, both from Milwaukee. Their time in this race was 2 minutes 11 2/10 seconds, making another national record. This team was composed of R. Moody, C. Moody, C. Shaver, and G. Shafer.

For these successes they won the three handsome trophies shown above.

ADVISORY BASKETBALL

AREND'S rangy basket tossers played the part of the traditional "dark horse" in winning the heavy weight championship. They defeated Cole's team 29 to 13. Although Cole's aggregation displayed plenty of passing and skill around the basket they were unable to cope with the strength and length of their opponents. E. Davis was the high scorer of the game.

The lightweight championship fell to Clifford's group. There was no question about their winning because they displayed more class than any of the other 16 teams in the league. They trounced Epstein's gang by a 26 to 15 score in the final round.

Taken all in all both leagues had successful tournaments and the games were exhibitions of good sportsmanship and fight, two of the qualities necessary for good school spirit.

HUMOR

Howard Landis knows a man that is saving up to be a miser. He's Scotch.

"Solomon, old man, how do you get so many birthday presents?"
"Oh, a word to the wives is sufficient."

1st Bird: "I'd like to have you for dinner tomorrow."
2nd Bird: "All right, but I'm afraid you'll find me a little tough."

Ruth J.: "And you won't think less of me if I allow you to kiss me?"
? ? ? ? ?: "I couldn't think less of you!"
Ruth: "Sir!"

Jack M.: "Could I get away with kissing you?"
Mary E.: "Try and get away without kissing me."

Jean Block (while taking her first golf lesson): "Must I swear if I miss it, Daddy?"

Oscar Z.: "Don't you wish you were a little boy again?"
Maurice S.: "Yeh, I could ride half-fare again."

Crabby professor (noticing only one student in the room): "Well, where are the rest of the fools?"
Young man: "I don't know professor, but it looks like we're the only two here."

Absent-minded professor (with a new pair of shoes): "It's just as I thought, Emma, I can't get these on until I've worn them a few times."

Don: "You used to call me darling; you don't call me anything now."
Grace: "That shows my self control."

Eleanor Jack: "Don't you think it would be terribly foolish to 'go' with a boy beneath me in intelligence?"
Kassie Jamison: "Worse than that my dear, it would be impossible."

Lorenz Tower: "How did your intelligence test come out? I suppose your mental age is about twelve."
Art Verner: "They said I hadn't even been born yet."

The Class of 1927 after four happy and fruitful years within the walls of Peoria High School, and having developed mentally, physically, and socially, under its guiding influence, and now about to embark on the great sea of life takes this opportunity of bidding fond though sad farewell to our dear old school which we have learned to respect so deeply, and to our dear teachers who have struggled so valiantly with us in our efforts to make our lives more worthwhile.

"Central Illinois' Largest Outfitters to Men, Women and Children"

It Was Mark Twain
who said:

"Weeds will come without invitation,
Roses grow wild without attention,
But I'll be hanged if one can raise a hill of potatoes
Without the use of a hoe."

This quotation is so apt, that we use it to plant the seed in your minds of the kind of store we are, to invite you in, and promise you friendly attention on your visit. The high Quality of our merchandise has been the "hoe" that has raised this Institution through 37 years of sincere personal service, to The Quality Institution which it is today, catering to the apparel needs for the entire family.

Collegiates, Co-eds, Men, Women and Children take pride in wearing The B&M Clothes. There's a tone and distinction about them. Yet, the prices are fair, even more fair than you'd expect for the Quality given.

To those who leave Peoria High and those who stay, we wish you success beyond your fondest hopes. Such is the wish of this store and it's entire organization.

Mrs. Jones: "Are you going to send Jane to college?"
Mrs. Smith: "Yes, it's quite an expense, but I don't want my daughter to marry."
NOW:
Mrs. Jones: "Are you going to send Jane to college?"
Mrs. Smith: "Yes, it's quite an expense, but I don't want my daughter to be an old maid."

"Who killed cock robin?"
"Me," said the sparrow, "Wid my lil' ol' gat—I pumped 'im full o' lead and I'll do the same to any other ol' high hat boid what monkeys aroun' wit my lil' sugar."

Walter Hendricks: "What is the date?"
Miss Daniels: "Oh, don't bother about such a trivial thing."
Walter: "Well, I want something right on this paper."

The Store of Satisfaction!

"How deep do you usually dig a well?" someone asked a toiling tapper of nature's crystal fountain.

"Down to where the water is," was the satisfying reply.

Store service that stops anywhere short of its object, which is customer's satisfaction, is as incomplete as a well shaft that stops a foot above the water.

47 years of SERVICE and SATISFACTION are the proof that this store has served its public of yesterday and today faithfully and well, with added proof of better SERVICE and SATISFACTION for customers of tomorrow!

Thus has our enduring trade friendships increased, thus has confidence in Block and Kuhl Co. been permanently fixed in the esteem of Peoria community.

Esther Becsey: "Look, we have three men on the bases!"
Paul Pottker: "Yeh, but they are at bat."

"Did Tommy take his medicine like a man?"
Disillusioned mother: "No, he didn't know enough words."

Mrs. Belsley (standing in front of Eleanor Jack): "Now, Eleanor, can't you see the Pied Piper right in front of you?"

"Why the wound, Red Bill?"
"We were playing draw poker, but the other boid beat me to the draw."

Nathan Meyer: "Take a ride?"
Lois Baker: "What's wrong with it?"

Paul Nixon: "I was struck by the beauty of her hand.
"I tried to kiss her.
"As I say,
"I was struck by the beauty of her hand."

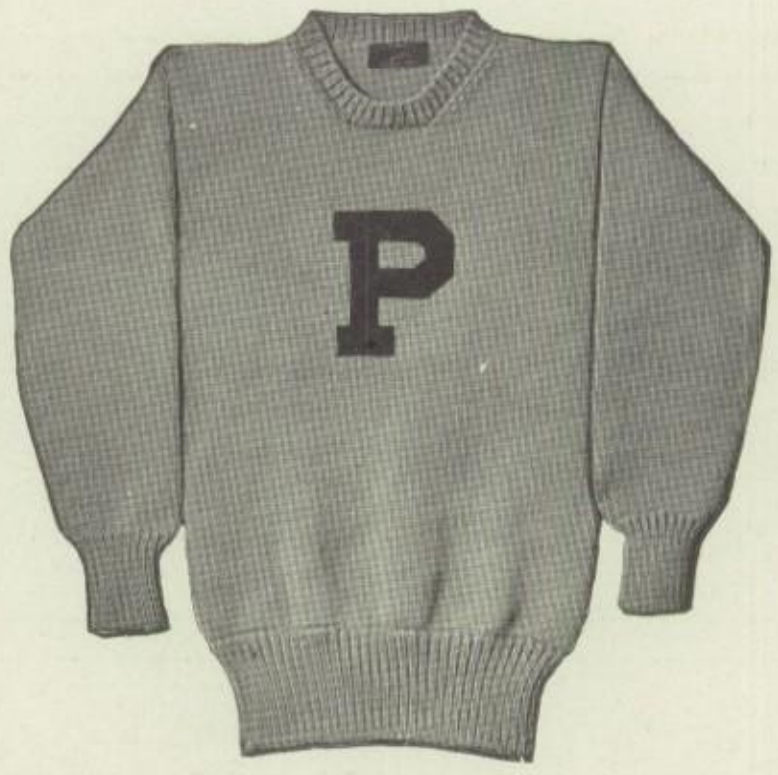
KNIT GOODS

Interest in athletic contests during the past six years has necessitated the building of many new and larger Stadiums.



With this growth in general interest a keener study of the needs of the athelete for garments suited to the sport has developed.

By constant association with Directors, Coaches, Trainers and Players, the O'Shea Mills have endeavored to anticipate changes and developments in knitted garments that would assist the progress of athletics.

It is the aim of the Jackson-Keenan Company to handle only reputable lines, and we stand heartily behind our O'Shea Knit Goods

Don Matthews: "Now we're approaching that long tunnel. You're not afraid, are you, sweetheart?"

Babe field: "Not if you take that cigarette out of your mouth."

The rain falls on just men,
And also on the unjust fellows,
But mostly on the just, because
The unjust have the justs' umbrellas.

"Is God everywhere?"
"Yes, Willie, God is everywhere."
"Is God in the sugar bowl?"
"Yes, Willie, God is everywhere."
"Is God in my pant's pocket?"
Again came the same answer.
"Ha, ha," flashed the final retort, "I fooled you. I ain't got no pant's pocket."

"He only kissed her twice during the whole trip."
"How come?"
"The automobile hit a bump."

He: "Pearls?"
She: "No, my own, of course."

Don Matthews: "I've had this car for years and never had a wreck."
Betty Speers: "You mean you've had this wreck for years and never had a car?"

Edgar Walker (seeing a long funeral procession): "I wonder who died."
Our Hard Boiled Ed.: "The one in the hearse, silly."

City Banker (visiting the farm): "I suppose that's the hired man."
Farmer (who has visited the city bank): "No, that's the first vice-president in charge of cows."

"The fellow that dated Betty got a prize."
"What was it?"

Howard Landis: "Show me, I'm from——"
Kermit Henkes: "Don't finish; your ears give you away."

"What's the Greek for boiled water?"
"Soup."

The maiden smiled encouragement—
Our hero took the cue—
Ooooooooooo!

A back fence is the shortest distance between two gossips.

"Isn't there some fable about the ass that disguised himself in a lion's skin?"
"Yes, but nowadays the high schools do it with sheepskins."

It has gotten so now that Listerine has as bad a reputation as halitosis.

"What generally becomes a woman?"
"A girl."

She was only a millionaire's daughter, but—isn't that enough?

He: "I understand Jim has six new law suits."
She: "Yes, I always knew he was a classy dresser."

Adoring Girl: "How did you ever manage to grow so strong?"
Halfback Hank: "Well, you see—my mother insisted that I go to a public school and wear curls until I was fourteen."

Pretty Girl: "I live at 416 Main street. Now don't you dare follow me."

"What movement for a watch do you like best?"
"Black Bottom."

Old maid school teacher: "Did I make myself plain?"
Small boy: "No, God did that."

He: "That's nothing. My uncle worked twenty years on one sentence."

Wifey: "John, John, there's a man in the pantry, and I've got a pie there."
Hubbie: "Oh, it's all right as long as he doesn't die in the house."

1st Convict: "When I get out of here I'm going to have a hot time."
2nd Convict. "So am I, I guess. I'm in for life."

Old Lady. "Can you tell me what the berth rate is for the Twentieth Century?"
Agent: "You'll have to see the government statistics, madame; this is a Pullman office."

"Who is the man wearing the black robe? Is he a chimney sweep?"
"Naw. He's a Klu Kluxer from Pittsburgh."

"Why did Dutch Tipton give up golf?"
"He discovered that a golf ball can't be driven with one hand."

Ken M.: "Let's go outside and watch the great moon climb over the hill."
J. B.: "Sure, I feel like necking, too."

Bob Blank: "May I come, too?"
Emma Strawn: "You'll never come to, unconscious."

Ken Marshall: "May I call on you?"
Phyllis White: "No, of course not."
K. M.: "Oh, I didn't mean tonight. I mean some cold, rainy night when I haven't anything else to do."

Mr. Heghin: "What is necessary for a country to have a stable government?"
Howie Siegfried (just waking up): "Good horses."

John Radley: "What should I do first when I teach Eleanor to drive my car?"
Fred Crawshaw: "Insure the car."

Stern Parent: "You told me definitely that you would be home before 12!"
Daughter: "I know, but Bob said that his father would take me home, because he was coming this way—and how was I to know his father was a milkman?"

S. F.: "Thank you for the nice hug and kiss."
